THE LINCOLN STAR

FIFTY-SEVENTH YEAR No. 183 LINCOLN, NEB., SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 2, 1959 SEVEN CENTS

Celebrants Jam LAFB Preview

...Full Day Ahead

By Nancy Ray

Achin' feet — thousands of them—may require attention after Saturday's event-packed Centennial schedule centered around running, marching and dancing.

The pace of Lincoln's 100th anniversary events will slow down to a fast run Saturday from the jet-age pace set by the Lincoln Air Force Base show Friday.

Friday's display of $100 million of military might attracted 11,000 spectators for the rare "open-door" invitation to the top-secret SAC base.

Marathon runners will touch off Saturday's schedule as a hardy 20-man team will race from Elkhorn to Lincoln following the route of the first Lancaster County settlers, the John D. Prey family.

5-Hour Run

The runners—all LAFB men—will cover the wagon route in about 5 hours and present a parchment commemorating the original pioneer jaunt to Mayor Bennett S. Martin shortly before noon.

The presentation at 21st and N will be the signal for a 3-hour parade—the largest that Lincoln has ever staged—to start.

Almost everyone not participating in the march is expected to be on the sidelines, as Centennial officials estimate a spectator crowd of 100,000 along the route.

Thirty-five bands will furnish the marching rhythm for the more than 7,000 participants including city, state, Centennial officials and TV star George Gobel who will tour the route in a speedboat (on wheels).

Guardsmen

National Guardsmen carrying the colors will doff their normal military garb for pioneer costume to lead off the show. Other reminders of the past decades will include antique autos including a hand-built 1906 model driven by its manufacturer, R. E. Cecil of 3801 So. 40th.

The entries—too numerous to mention in detail —will include everything from antique baby-buggies to mobile atomic missiles.

For the kids, there'll be some special treats in the form of a float by the Humane Society featuring puppies, roller-skating and square-dancing groups, plenty of horses and even a few burros.

For those marchers and watchers still able to enjoy more footwork, the star-studded Centennial Ball begins at 8:30 p.m. in Lincoln's new Pershing Municipal Auditorium.

Gobel Stars

George Gobel will head the list of celebrities on the program, and Jan Garber's orchestra will furnish the music for the crowd which shows all signs of surpassing the Inaugural Ball crowd in size.

On the more serious side, 8 Lincolnites will be honored during the Centennial dance, each for his specific contribution to the city in his or her field.

Religious services Sunday will include observance of the city's 100th anniversary in morning services and a special Religious Heritage Day observance at 3 p.m. will feature Dr. Walter Judd, Minnesota congressman and ordained minister, speaking at the University of Nebraska Coliseum on "Religion and a Strong America."

Children's voices—a mass choir of 1,000 assembled from the Lincoln schools—will sing anthems at the free services.

DONLEY BURNS ANEW

Second Blaze Within Week

Black Smoke Sweeps Sky; Sightseers Crowd Scene

By Del Harding

A roaring, two-alarm fire which spewed black smoke visible for miles raced through the Donley Medical Supply Co. at 2415 O Friday afternoon.

The building had been the scene of a $300,000 two-alarm fire only last Saturday.

Firm president Leon Donley said the latest blaze, which he estimated caused an additional $15-18,000 damage, started in a pile of mattresses on the second floor.

Four firemen were injured fighting the fire, but 3 were released after hospital treatment.

Spotted Fire

Donley said he, Douglas Dort and Jack Stone spotted a small fire in a pile of mattresses and Dort went and phoned the Fire Department. Donley said it appeared at first to be only another of the minor flareups which have been common on the gutted second floor since last Saturday's blaze.

A fire engine answered the call from Station 2, only a block away, at 2:51 p.m. Noting the seriousness of the blaze a regular fire alarm was turned in at 2:55 and one minute later fire officials en route to the scene from downtown fire headquarters saw the billowing black smoke and turned in a second alarm (which calls for a maximum department effort).

Firemen had the blaze under control by about 4 p.m. and had nearly all the flames extinguished by 4:30 p.m.

Donley said he and Stone, operator of a floor service who was there inspecting last week's damage, were nearly trapped by the flames.

He said fireman Lee Ideen, 49, of 3227 Vine, and Ed Pierce, 22, of 828 D, had just arrived on the second floor when the fire cut loose with a roar and spread throughout the floor.

Ideen suffered first and second degree burns on his face and hands when caught by the flash of fire. He was reported in fair condition at a local hospital.

Pierce was injured later when he stepped on a nail but he was released after hospital treatment.

Also released after treatment were firemen Wallace Barnett, 28, of 1731 No. 58th and Henry McGrail, 37, of 4720 Huntington. Barnett had a cinder in his eye and McGrail suffered a shoulder injury when a beam fell on him.

Wind Hampers

A 32 m.p.h. wind with gusts up to 50 m.p.h. and a 92-degree temperature were credited by Fire Chief Paul Feaster for the spectacularly quick way the fire spread.

Donley estimated the fire spread from the west end of the building 150 feet to the east side within one minute.

Several thousand spectators gathered quickly to watch the fire. The wind whipped bits of burning debris through the air and for a time it appeared nearby buildings were in danger.

Firemen assigned to check for fires starting from wind-whipped debris spotted and extinguished a minor roof fire on P between 24th and 25th.

Visible At LAFB

The huge columns of black smoke were visible as far away as Lincoln Air Force Base. The fire was much more spectacular than the earlier blaze, due mainly to the heavy smoke and wind.

The fire was again confined to the second floor which is occupied entirely by the Donley Medical Supply Co.

But the Donley-Dort Drug Co. and the Seven-Up Bottling Co. both on the first floor, again received water damage but were not reached by the flames.

Torrid 92 New High; Hot Today

Even the weatherman cooperated Friday to launch the 100th year celebration in Lincoln with a record-breaking 92-degree reading and predictions of another "scorcher" for the Capital City Saturday.

Previous May 1 high for Lincoln was a 90-degree reading recorded in 1887.

Strong southerly winds plagued the entire state Friday with wind velocities reaching 30 to 35 m.p.h., and gusts hitting 50 m.p.h.

Partly cloudy to cloudy skies are on tap for the state Saturday with scattered showers and thunderstorms expected. Readings were expected to range from the 80s and 90s in the central and east to the 70s in the west.

Cuba-Based Invaders Of Panama Surrender

...Bloodless Invasion Effort Falls Apart

Panama (AP)—The invasion of Panama fell apart Friday in the coastal area where it began. The bedraggled invaders surrendered and were taken without a fight to face their punishment.

The main body of the invaders from Cuba—more than 80 men—put down arms in a quick, bloodless climax to the action that began last weekend in this strategic central American country.

The surrender to Panamanian troops was carried out under the eyes of representatives of the Organization of American States (OAS) in the little coastal town of Nombre De Dios. The invaders took over the town after their landing and then holed up there and spent most of the week talking surrender.

The announcement that they had given up was made by Fernando Lobo, head of the observation team rushed to Panama by the Organization of American States (OAS) to check on the invasion.

Guard Troops

He said more than 80 and perhaps as many as 86 men had put down their arms and handed themselves over to Guard troops. Panama Minister of Government J. D. Bazan put the number at 87.

Lobo, Brazilian ambassador to the OAS, said "there are a few invaders—4 or 5—who have not surrendered." He added that a small band of about 5 men had been spotted heading for Panama City and said they may be Panamanians. Most of the invding party was made up of Cubans.

An earlier government announcement had said two-thirds or about 60 members of the invasion force had pulled out of Nombre De Dios and were marching toward the main highway leading to this capital.

The later information from Lobo indicated, however, that the main body called it quits in the little town.

Held Off

National Guard troops were deployed around Nombre De Dios earlier in the week but they had held off an attack while negotiations by the OAS and Cuban emissaries went on.

Although the largely bloodless invasion had comic-opera aspects, its serious potentialities were emphasized from the start. The OAS moved quickly to condemn any outside interference in President Ernesto De La Guardia's government. The United States put Navy planes and ships on patrol duty off Panama's coast amid rumors that more invaders were at sea and preparing new landings.

HALLAM PLANT STRIKE HALTED

A workers' strike at the Hallam nuclear power plant site ended late Friday afternoon as differences between union members and contractors were settled in Omaha, a union spokesman announced.

Leonard Schaefer of Omaha, business representative of Local 1140, the striking union, said agreement had been reached and workers would probably return to their jobs Monday.

Union pickets were on their posts up until the agreement was reached Friday, observers said. Officials at the Hallam site said only supervisors continued to cross the picket lines.

Strauss Returns Charges

Denounces Inglis Allegations As 'Falsehoods'

Washington (AP) — Lewis L. Strauss fired back at a scientist-critic Friday and was supported by several senators.

Strauss, testifying at a Senate Commerce Committee hearing on his nomination to be Secretary of Commerce, denounced as false charges leveled at him by David R. Inglis, an atomic scientist.

"Untruth" and "unqualified falsehood" were some of the labels that Strauss pinned on Inglis allegations.

Inglis, who said he would feel safer about the future of this country's national security if Strauss were not in President Eisenhower's cabinet, also got a going over from Sen. John O. Pastore (D-RI), who presided at the hearing, and some other committee members.

By Truman

Pastore said the decision to develop the H-bomb was made by former President Harry S. Truman, and added:

"That was a presidential decision, and I don't see how it can be used to disqualify anyone."

Inglis, a theorectical physicist at the AEC's Argonne Laboratory in Chicago, is chairman of the Federation of American Scientists. He testified that Strauss used tactics that were narrow-minded, vindictive and sometimes unethical.

This brought a retort from Sen. Hugh Scott (R-Pa) that he never had heard testimony "more infested with a venomous desire for revenge." Friday Scott said Inglis "took off on cloud 9" in his estimate of Strauss.

Reply

Strauss, who has been serving under a recess appointment as Commerce Secretary, was offered a chance to reply to Inglis's statements. The secretary rejected the allegations against him one by one.

Specifically he denied that he had opposed the sending of radioactive isotopes to Europe for medical research. He said this was an old and unfounded story "which originated in a column."

Woman Is Slain, Cops Hide Negro

Alexandria, La. (AP)—Jittery officers—fearing mob action against a Negro accused in the savage rape and slaying of a white woman—Friday played a frantic touch-and-go game to hide his whereabouts.

Ora Lee Rogers, 23-year-old Ville Platte man, was whisked into Rapides Parish (county) Jail here by heavily-armed deputies. Officers tried to keep his presence secret in an apparent security move.

Then a few hours later, the accused man was questioned here and spirited out again to an undisclosed hideaway.

The rape-slaying of Mrs. Lumley Guillory, 36, occured in the tiny south-central Louisiana community of Reddell. The victim's young daughter was sleeping in her adjoining room, officers said.

Gobel Brings Las Vegas Act To Lincoln

Comedian On Stage Tonight

By Dave Clark

George Gobel may be infused with Centennial spirit, but one thing's certain: his jokes won't be 100 years old.

The TV comedian, who arrived in Lincoln Friday to participate in Saturday's Centennial activities, brings a new act from his show last month in Las Vegas.

Gobel was greeted at the airport by Mayor Bennett

CENTENNIAL

Martin, Centennial officials A. James Ebel, Mrs. Joe R. Seacrest, Pace Woods and some 50 fans. Before heading into Lincoln for a brief rest prior to a dinner in his honor, Gobel spent a few minutes signing autographs for fans who first gave him paper and later presented purses for him to sign.

'Keep Moving'

"The secret is to keep moving," he said later in explaining his technique for getting through crowds without either insulting people or getting writer's cramp.

"It gets to be endless. Pretty soon they start saying, 'Sign this for my uncle,' or 'maybe I'd better get one for my cousin.' And people who were just standing around will start to come over."

And he doesn't seem to be bothered by the fact that he was offered only purses while fans of Elvis Presley have been known to tender more intimate items of apparel for the signature of their hero.

'Little Younger'

"Elvis is a little younger than I am," Gobel said.

A midwesterner himself, Gobel was impressed with Lincoln's size.

"When I get out of Los Angeles and New York, I always seem surprised at the size of other places," he said.

The diminutive comedian will be commissioned an admiral in Nebraska's Navy Saturday and will ride in an open speedboat pulled by a trailer in the parade. He will be master of ceremonies at the Centennial Ball Saturday night.

A Long Haul

From his hometown of Chicago to the kleig lights of network television was a long haul for Gobel.

"I started out in radio on the WLS Barn Dance in Chicago," he said. "I used to sing and play my guitar."

In service in World War II as a pilot, he played his guitar and sang, and gradually began to work humor into his act.

"After the war I started working a job here and there."

When television came, Gobel caught on and for several years now has been one of NBC's regular attractions.

Transfers

All that's ending this fall, however, when Gobel transfers to CBS for a weekly 30-minute show.

When he leaves Lincoln Saturday night, Gobel will go to New York, where on May 4 he will open a 4-week stay at the Waldorf.

When Mayor Martin said the 92-degree weather Friday was brought in especially for Gobel's arrival, the comedian seemed less than pleased.

"Oh, really?" he said. "Who put up the money for that?"

Centennial Draws Notes Of Applause

Two congratulatory messages to the city on its Centennial celebration have been received by Mayor Bennett S. Martin's office.

"Congratulations and good wishes for the next century" was cabled Friday from London, England.

The wishes were sent by Geoffrey DeFreitas, member of parliament for Lincoln, England.

The two cities have exchanged goodwill gestures for the past several years. The Lincoln Eng. mayor is en route here to participate in the 100-year observance.

Best wishes were also received from Omaha in a resolution passed by its City Council.

On behalf of Omaha citizens, "congratulations and best wishes upon Lincoln's 100th year of progress" were extended. Also relayed was the fervent wish for "continued progress and growth during the coming century."

Ronin Lauds 64 Students Cited By Elks

"You are today where your thinking and actions have brought you." County Judge Herbert Ronin told 64 Lincoln high school students honored Friday night for achievement and citizenship.

Warning the honorees of Elks Lodge No. 80 against "false illusions," Ronin said, "whether you will be outstanding or a real success in life still needs to be determined."

The teenagers were awarded Elks' Recognition Certificates at a reception in their honor by George B. Klein, Lodge 80 exalted ruler, and Edwin F. Dosek, Youth Day chairman.

Receiving their awards for placing the Elks state leadership and scholarship contest were Adrianne Hartman, 3rd in scholarship; Chip Kuklin, first in leadership, and Olaf Stokke Jr., first in Southeast District scholarship contest.

The recognition certificates were presented to students from all 5 Lincoln senior highs, in the following categories: academic scholarship, leadership, school government, science, art, foreign youth relations, music, sports, students publications, debate and dramatics.

Sheriff's Posse Seeks Queen In Lincoln May 9

North Platte, Neb. (AP) — Members of the Lincoln County Sheriff's Posse will be in Lincoln May 9 for the big western parade of the Lincoln Centennial celebration — and they'll be looking for pretty girls.

The posse is seeking entrants for its annual Buffalo Bill rodeo queen contest, to be held in connection with the 77th annual Buffalo Bill rodeo in North Platte on June 19-21.

For the first time this year, the girl selected as queen will be an automatic finalist in the Miss Rodeo America contest at Las Vegas, Nev. During November.

To bear the title of "Miss Cornhusker," she will receive an expense-paid trip to Las Vegas for winning the North Platte competition.

Centennial Coins To Change Hands ½ Million Times

Worth their weight in publicity are the 50,000 souvenir Centennial 50-cent pieces which are expected to change hands half a million times during the city's 8-day celebration.

The "gold" pieces, featuring the Centennial seal, are worth 50 cents at Lincoln banks and businesses, but Centennial officials figure most of the coins will be kept as souvenirs.

For the more economy-minded citizens, a reminder: cash in your Centennial 50-cent pieces before noon, May 15.

3 Space Probes Delayed

Satellite, Venus Shots Ousted

Washington (AP)—The United States Friday called off plans for an early satellite launching on an orbit 30,000 miles high, and for attempts to fire space probes to Venus in June.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the launchings were postponed because of technical difficulties.

The postponement indicated there would be no further attempt to fire a probe near or in an orbit around Venus for at least a year and a half.

After mid-June, Venus will not be in as favorable a position for an earth-to-Venus shot until Jan. 13, 1961.

Difficulties

NASA said in a statement that "the 3 launchings will be delayed until the technical difficulties have been surmounted." That was all.

Officials declined to indicate the nature of the difficulties.

It was learned, however, that they involved space vehicles, and the launching rockets as well.

The high satellite, and a probe intended to be shot past Venus, reportedly would have been boosted into space by 3-stage Thor-Able rockets.

A probe designed to orbit around Venus would have been launched by an Atlas-Able vehicle 3½ times as powerful as Thor-Able.

Capital City Construction Surges Ahead

Lincoln construction continued to gain momentum during April, reaching a total of $1,735,029 in building permits.

This brought the year's total to $4,831,961 as compared with $2,403,485 for the same period last year.

The April total was only slightly below the all-time high of $1,807,124 established in 1955. The 1958 April total was $1,008,373.

New residential construction during April totalled 118 units. The breakdown was 100 single-family, 3 duplexes and two apartment buildings (12 units).

Totals

Construction totals from building permits were single-family residences, $1,167,311; duplexes, $57,456, and apartments, $71,040.

Other major construction included First Covenant Church, 6024 L, $195,912; service station, $20,000, and factory addition, $15,000.

New residential starts so far this year total 327 units as compared with 154 units in 1958 and 203 in 1957 for the same period.

Building Inspector E. A. Vorhees said the outlook for 1959 is in excess of 900 new homes as compared with about 700 in 1958 and 1957.

2 Executed

Havana (AP) — Two former soldiers were executed by a firing squad at Santiago on charges of homicide. The unofficial execution toll since Jan. 1 now stands at 459.

Ball Books Enter Black

"It's paid for."

That's the encouraging report from the Centennial Ball arrangement committee. Advance ticket sales for spectator seating and dancing have passed the "break-even" cost of the ball.

With advance mail orders still pouring in and the Pershing Auditorium box office doing a brisk business, the Centennial officials felt safe in predicting success for the first big paid event of the 8-day celebration.

Spectacular Seats Are Still Available

Good seats for the Centennial Spectacular are still available, Pershing Auditorium Manager Dick Wagner said Friday night.

Wagner reminded holders of coupons for seats that the coupons must be exchanged at the box office for reserved seats. All seats are reserved.

Application forms, a manual of directions for operating the program, and a manual of equipment and materials in science, mathematics and modern foreign languages were sent to each public school in the state last Thursday.

All the meetings next week will begin at 10 a.m.

Approach In Conflict

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

A clash in national policy philosophy as it influences our foreign policy is not always found in a direct conflict of statements. In the Senate, a unanimous vote was cast to tie up Navy appropriations unless Marine Corps strength is restored to 200,000 personnel.

The action followed a similar step taken in regard to the maintaining of present Army manpower. It would reverse civilian defense officials who called for a Marine Corps number of 175,000 men. The issue is not an important one from just an economic point of view. It strikes, also, at the heart of a part of U.S. foreign policy. This is the policy which contains the conviction so often expressed by President Eisenhower that the next all-out war would not be confined to the usual ground, sea and air maneuvers known in past conflicts.

Foreign Policy Matter

What the President has said is that the U.S. will not risk defeat due to refusal to use atomic weapons. He has counted on this as a strong influence upon any inclinations the Kremlin may have to engage in open warfare with the West — an inclination that might be inflamed by numerical superiority.

The President's position in this matter has never received unanimous endorsement among other national figures. Debate of the issue, of course, has been held to a minimum as a matter of national unity in the face of one international crisis after another. This reluctance to appear at odds among ourselves over such basic policy matters is all a part of the sincere effort being made by both political parties to achieve non-partisanship in foreign policy affairs.

But the Senate action is in conflict with this threat of atomic warfare. Any cut in armed forces would represent a greater dependence upon both missiles and atomic bombs. If such weapons are to be used, the foot soldier would become rather outmoded. By the time he could get into battle, it is possible that the war would be over.

And with more and more progress being made in space flight and missiles, the foot soldier will become more and more out of date. Thus, with a cut in military manpower, we are attempting to place an emphasis on the development of those tools with which the next war, if it comes, will be won or lost.

The disturbing part of this approach is that it offers such a limited choice of action. It means that, should war come again, it would be a holocaust such as mankind has never even dreamed of. It would mean immediate and massive destruction on a world-wide basis.

And the difficulty or bothersome thing in this is that it refuses to recognize the possibility of war predicated on an assumption of justification. It would no doubt have a very sobering effect on Russia insofar as the Reds might think of deliberately starting a global conflict with the hope of wearing us down with sheer weight of numbers.

But if Russia ever believed it was at the point where it had no choice but to go to war with the West, the results of a no-compromise policy on atomic weapons would be disastrous. Within days or perhaps even hours, entire nations would be obliterated and human misery and suffering would be spread across the face of the world. Civilization as we know it today would actually be in the process of destroying itself. In the view of some, perhaps, this would be preferable to another two, three or four-year war but this would not be a very widespread opinion.

A World In Flame

These are undoubtedly some of the things that Congress is thinking about when it considers matters of military manpower. In the face of such considerations as these, economic matters would obviously take a back seat. Any financial savings would be of no concolation if the time ever came when they forced us into global atomic warfare.

Safely Through May Day

We are happy to report that another May Day has passed without incident, other than happy ones, and the nation can go on without remorse with a light, confident step.

America has never developed May Day beyond a children's holiday of giving and receiving — a delightful little custom in which fairy-like little baskets are given and received at dusk, sometimes with candy, that is if the giver is a little girl. If the giver is a little boy he probably ate the candy himself. Small males have an inborn compulsion for eating everything in sight, a compulsion that cannot be easily cast aside even on such an outgoing occasion as May Day.

The Communists celebrate May Day, too, as an adult occasion in which little children had better watch out. An ingenious earlier Red found out that tri-nitro toluol looks greatly like stick candy and if properly detonated on the front porch of a wrong-thinking citizen it explodes magnificently. Its effect is more deeply etched on what remains of the recipient than anything plain candy can do. May Day signifies a Red revolution when at least one half of a generation was liberated after the manner aforementioned.

America does not observe the Red May Day. Rather it leaves the holiday to the loving nature of little children and occupies the adult mind with the national observance of Law Day which falls on the same date. Law is the best device yet invented by which a government can defend itself against tyrannous impulses while also protecting its fairminded and enlightened citizens against barbarianism. Such a government agrees to self-limiting conditions, writes them down and then obeys them.

Ghengis Khan, who once resided in Outer Mongolia and divers places in the more civilized world where he could murder his way in, has the world's record for hating law. He wouldn't even allow a written language because there were always myopic persons around who might write down his edict of a moment ago and try to hold him to it a moment hence, just after he had changed his mind. With the help of his own kind he managed to murder more people wreck more countries and buildings and loot more treasuries than any known tryant, but neither he nor the world gained one good thing from it.

Governor On The Mend

Nebraskans will rejoice over the details of the medical report which foresees no physical impediment to the full and needed public career of Governor R. G. Brooks.

The physician's report was full of candor and named the governor's affliction as a cerebral clot which, it said, is clearing up satisfactorily. In a reasonably brief time the governor should be able to return to his desk and devote his full capacities to his work.

The report should end unwonted political speculation and lay the subject to rest.

If there is a lesson in it it is in the form of caution against this later day deviousness in dealing with the health of a high public official. One recalls the ambiguous but optimistic report on the late Franklin Roosevelt shortly before his death, the deviousness and confusion regarding President Eisenhower's illness and the general handling of the subject of the ailing Dulles. None of it added nor substracted one day to the service of those figures, but the Madison Avenue approach to the matter created a great deal of grievious confusion and misinterpretation. A little forthrightness would have been better. One hopes this deviousness expires as swiftly as it was born.

Meantime, Nebraskans are mightily relieved and grateful over the report of the governor's mending health.

Featherbedding Lesson

From The Des Moines Register

Refusal by the International Union of Elevator Constructors to permit installation of seven German-made escalators in a Cedar Rapids building until they had been dismantled, piece-by-piece, and put together again is a shocking illustration of "featherbedding."

It demonstrates also, that tariffs and import quotas are not the only barriers that are raised against expansion of foreign trade.

The elevators were purchased from a German manufacturer, through an American concern, at a price said to be about 25 per cent less than similar American-made equipment could be bought. Some of this saving in cost resulted because the German concern delivered the escalators fully assembled.

American companies follow a practice of assembling such equipment at the factory, testing it and then disassembling it for shipment to the place of installation where it is assembled again.

The American practice orginated because of the difficulty of handling and transporting assembled escalators. Today the practice is cemented into the industry because unions contend their members would lose employment if the escalators were delivered assembled.

This American practice contributes to higher costs of producing, delivering and installing American-made escalators. It thus makes it possible for German manufacturers to sell their product in this country at a lower cost.

Featherbedding is a temporary weapon for creating and protecting jobs. But it is a job-destroying weapon if it is used to the extreme that a product or a service is priced out of the market. In addition it is needless and foolish economic waste.

Freeloading Easy In Washington

WASHINGTON—Lou Nichols, executive vice president of Schenley Distillers, is not the only big liquor executive playing a backstage part in influencing Washington. Nichols was the chief author of the recent criticism of the Supreme Court adopted by the American Bar Association which has kicked up such a furor in legal circles.

But he has company. Temperance groups have been casting an eye on some other influential liquor executives and lobbyists.

One is Clinton Hester, lobbyist for the U.S. Brewers Foundation, who makes it a practice every year to entertain the office staffs of Democratic congressmen and their wives at his palatial Virginia estate near Lexington. Significantly, Harry Livingston, disbursing clerk of the House of Representatives, help arranged for this very plus week-end jaunt with meals, rooms, plenty of liquor and a Saturday-night dance, all for the giveaway price of five bucks. This nominal tab permits guests to claim they are not freeloaders.

After spending the week end with Lobbyist Hester, the assistants of Democratic congressmen naturally are inclined to throw open the doors whenever Hester wants to do a little buttonholing for the U.S. Brewers Foundation.

Previously, temperance groups concentrated on Vice President Nixon's administrative assistant, Robert L. King, who was on leave as general manager of Southern Comfort Distillery.

☆ ☆ ☆

The National Temperance League pointed out that important legislation was before Congress, involving rules and regulations for liquor advertising itself as "deliciously different" . . . "the prestige gift from the old South," though actually it was no better nor worse than 16 other liquors advertised in the same issue of Life magazine.

Vice President Nixon finally bowed, dropped King as his assistant.

Temperance groups are also taking a look at the manner in which members of Congress serve liquor in the old Supreme Court chamber, and elsewhere in the Capitol.

In the old days, liquor flowed so freely under the Capitol dome that it became a national scandal. Some of our well-known statesmen, among them Daniel Webster, were as potted as palms when they spoke on the Senate floor. Finally Congress passed a law forbidding the serving of liquor within a certain distance of the Capitol buildings. In the last few years, however, liquor has even been served officially in the old Supreme Court chamber of the very center of the Capitol building.

So temperance leaders are asking congressional leaders whether they intend to live up to the laws they write.

Herter Diplomacy Quiet But Good

WASHINGTON — The new era of quiet diplomacy for the United States which began with the appointment of Christian Herter as secretary of state has met its test at the western foreign ministers' conference in Paris. The meeting began with the clear possibility of disagreements among the western allies; it ended so quickly as to surprise the prognosticators, and in an atmosphere of unity and amity which will surprise the Russians.

Herter did not attempt to dominate the conference, and it would have been a betrayal of his character if such had been the case. His reasonableness and willingness to join in the give-and-take which made an agreement possible are given credit by his opposite numbers for much of the unity attained. The result was not an American victory as such —the United States went to Paris without a hard-and-fast program — but a joint achievement. And in that lies its strength.

There was an enormous premium on the success of the Paris conference. The allies had been decidedly split.

West Germany had been supported by its unaccustomed ally, France, in its intransigent attitude on the whole question of Berlin and German unification. Great Britain seemed to stand alone in its insistence on a more flexible approach to the problem of finding workable solutions.

The fact that a position which all the allies are willing to support has now been taken does not mean that the West is any nearer an agreement with the Soviet Union. Indeed, the package arrangement arrived at by the foreign ministers of the West has already been declared unacceptable by the Soviet Union.

Yet firmness is now possible, as it would not have been among divided allies. A point has definitely been established from which bargaining can begin.

The western allies will at least be aided in the Geneva negotiations by the fact that the Warsaw Pact nations are divided on the issue of Germany's future.

The foundation for the speedy success at Paris was laid by a working committee of diplomats which had been laboring in London. This in itself was a return to the traditional methods of diplomacy which Herter exemplifies.

But Berlin and Germany are not the only questions the secretary faces, and faces right now. In oil-rich Iraq, Communist penetration threatens a vital economic and geographical United States position.

Then there are always Quemoy and Matsu, where the situation is admittedly unsatisfactory but nothing is ever done to change it during periods of relative calm like the present.

The question is now whether Herter can galvanize all the resources of his department to deal with the whole complex of his problems or whether, like Secretary John Foster Dulles, he is a one-crisis-at-a-time operator.

A THOUGHT FOR THE SABBATH

Stories Of Famous Hymns

Bring Them In

Hark: 'tis the Shepherd's voice I hear,
Out in the desert dark and drear,
Calling the sheep who've gone astray
Far from the Shepherd's fold away.

Out in the desert hear their cry,
Out on the mountains wild and high;
Hark: 'tis the Master speaks to thee,
"Go find my sheep where'er they be."

Who'll go and help this Shepherd kind,
Help Him the wandering ones to find?
Who'll bring the lost ones to the fold,
Where they'll be sheltered from the cold?

Chorus:
Bring them in, bring them in,
Bring them in from the fields of sin,
Bring them in, bring them in,
Bring the wandering ones to Jesus.

There was an era, just before and just after the birth of the present century, when men and women were especially interested in religious revivals and evangelism. Great preachers and song leaders, individually and in teams, toured America and Canada, and held soul-winning services in the British Isles.

One of the soul-winning hymns which was most poular in the revival days of the latter nineteenth century was this one. Alexcenah Thomas authored its verses and William Augustus Ogden composed its tune, the only music to which it ever has been sung.

Mr. Ogden was born in 1841 and contributed generously to the gospel song collections which became so important a few decades later. He was a writer as well as a composer and for many songs such as "Go Tell The Story" and "Everlasting Life" he created both words and music.

Students' Opinion

Lincoln, Neb.

The undersigned law students, as past members of Prof. Merton Bernstein's Labor Law class, wish to make known to the people of the state of Nebraska the facts concerning Prof. Bernstein's teaching of the Labor Law course.

(1) We consider ourselves fortunate in having a professor with his ability and experience in the legislation and administration of labor law.

(2) We consider ourselves fortunate in having a professor with the ability to impart of his students a "fair and sound" and highly competent presentation of the many facets of the law governing labor-management relations.

(3) We consider ourselves fortunate in being able to associate with a professor who takes an active interest in his students, in the university by which he is employed, and in the state wherein he resides.

(4) From our association we are convinced that Prof. Bernstein's loyalty as an American and integrity as a person are above question.

(5) We feel that the people of the state and the students of the university cannot afford to lose a man of Prof. Bernstein's caliber.

Good Words And Bad

Lincoln, Neb.

Recently I witnessed the beginning of the transformation of O Street into a lovely, tree-lined, old-town promenade. The trees are undoubtedly being loaned by a reputable local landscape nursery who wishes to contribute to the beauty of the Centennial celebration.

However, the gentleman (and I use the term quite loosely) in charge of the planting proceedings was lending nothing to Lincoln's dignity and serenity. By his profanity directed at three helpers, he succeeded in defiling what could have been a high point of the day for strollers along O Street. Women and children who had paused to greet the main street greenery hastily fled, and men, old and young alike shook their heads and moved on. It was apparent that this individual was attempting to impress spectators.

If a man wishes to express himself, whether it be beautifully or forcefully, there are good words available. Our newspapers are evidence of this. If a man wants to impart directions or gain the support of his fellow workers, meaningful words do the job quickly and efficiently. A man who stands in public and wilfully violates all codes of decency by shouting such filthiness is the product of ignorance.

Centennial Days

Lincoln, Neb.

We've announced the glad tidings to all in the land,
That we'll roll out the carpet and strike up the band.
Our Centennial call,
"Com one and come all,"
Is for you! You'll be met with a welcoming hand!

On O Street our hero's the man with the beard;
The man who for ninety days hasn't been sheared;
But there'll soon come a day
When he'll shave it away,
Exposing bleached patches that look rather weird.

For two blocks on O Street no cars will we park,
As that would disturb our Centennial lark;
But if six mules come draggin'
An old covered wagon,
They'll have right-of-way, be it daylight or dark.

The streets up in Heaven are paved with pure gold,
And the streets down in Texas, so we have been told,
Are paved with petroleum,
But we'll lay linoleum
On O Street, the day we're one hundred years old.

Our life here in Lincoln was never the roughest;
Our town's hospitality far from the gruffiest,
We're a century old—
On our city we're sold—
Who says that the first hundred years are the toughest?

Call For Views

Lincoln, Neb.

I wonder how many of our city's taxpayers remember the special election forced onto them. The cost of this special election so ridiculously near the time for the regular election could well have been spent elsewhere.

Should any of the ones responsible for such disgustingly wasteful bungling be re-elected, it will make me think some registered voters care no more about what takes place in our government than the unregistered residents.

I would like to hear some of the views of the candidates as to their stand on urban renewal, fluoridation of our city water, and district representative form of city government, or any other things which would show integrity for the authority being considered. I like to know who I help give authority of this type to.

JOHN McLAUGHLIN

Lincoln, Neb.

We appreciate your editorial, "Delinquency Curb," in the April 28, Star, and voice agreement to your statement that many cities do not have the inclination to attack the problem of curbing delinquency. The federal government may indeed be the only agency able to provide unity and sacrifice required to meet the issue. Even if the first move comes from the federal government much difficulty and delay will result while cities and states get organized to curb our nation's most tragic problem. The co-operative effort and mutual understanding and respect of adults and young people in their efforts are the most difficult step in our program.

A great deal of progress has been made in the last year, and much of the apathy has developed into real interest.

Education Not Just Storing Away Facts, NWU Audience Told

"Worthwhile education is not just the storing away of vast compendiums of facts in capacious memories," Dr. John C. Weaver, University of Nebraska Graduate College dean, told Wesleyan University students Friday.

"Creative education has taken place only when there has been an electric stimulation . . . a disquieting prodding of your minds," he said in his speech at the 34th annual Wesleyan Honors convocation.

"A battle rises to a crescendo in our modern educational world between the supposedly antagonistic needs of specialized, professional education on the one hand and broad, liberal education on the other."

"In reality the matter is not so much a true conflict as it is an inadequately resolved problem in the satisfactory co-ordination of wholly compatible twin goals of achievement."

"No educator can effectively claim that we need less technical and scientific education. All the evidence is that we need more. I would hasten to add however, that what should worry us at least as much is that while specialization is an inescapable necessity today, all manner of specialists are creating problems they cannot solve."

Syas Charges Blind School Letter Bid To Kill Transfer Bill

Omaha (UPI) —Sen. George Syas of Omaha charged Friday that an April 29 letter written to parents of blind children by Supt. Jerry Regler of the State School for the Blind was "an attempt by the Board of Control to create a controversy."

Syas said the letter was a new attempt, in his opinion, to kill LB281, which transfers jurisdiction over the State School for the Blind from the Board of Control to the State Department of Education.

Regler, in the letter, said the bill has been amended so that services for the blind for students between birth and the age of 21 has been transferred to the Education Department, as well as the school itself. Services for blind persons over 21 remain under jurisdiction of the Board of Control.

No Services

This means, he said, that either no services are available for blind children who are graduated before the age of 21, or that the School for the Blind would have to obtain funds and personnel for rehabilitation, home teaching and other services for graduates who are not yet 21.

Syas said he already has an amendment prepared correcting the situation pointed up by Regler. His amendment, he said, would assure that services would be available to any blind person under 21 who has been graduated from the school.

"This is a small thing and easily taken care of," Syas said. "A simple telephone call to me would have straightened the thing out."

Debate Next Week

The bill, sponsored by Syas, now is on general file and debate is expected to begin next week. The amendment will be offered at the start of debate, Syas said.

The senator, a longtime critic of the Board of Control, said he had twice gone to the Board to urge it to ask its employes "to discontinue lobbying against LB281."

Regler's letter, he said, could be in violation of the Donner resolution, which prevents lobbying from departments of state government.

'Will Confuse'

The letter, Syas said, will "confuse the parents."

Regler, in his letter, pointed out that the bill as it now stands has "many differences" from the one presented at a parents' meeting in March.

He urged the parents to write for a copy of the amended bill and study it.

"I have written this letter because I feel that very few parents know how this legislation now stands," he wrote.

AEC Bars 3 Watch Firms From Strontium Dial Sale

Washington (AP)—Three makers of watches and clocks were ordered by the Atomic Energy Commission not to distribute any luminescent dials containing strontium 90.

The AEC orders said two of the companies had imported quantities of such dials, had distributed many of them to the public, and still have possession of others.

An AEC spokesman said that generally speaking a watch whose dial contained strontium 90 would be no more hazardous to the wearer than the more common ones depending upon radium substances for their luminous quality.

He said, however, that the strontium 90 dial might have more potential danger in some circumstances —if, for example, the wearer habitually slept with a hand over his face and the watch near his eyes.

Bone Cancer

Strontium 90, the most feared element of radioactive fallout, could cause bone cancer if taken into the system in sufficient quantities.

The AEC said it could not say how many watches and clocks with faces containing strontium 90 are in the hands of the public. It said all the firms have been cooperative in its investigation.

Named in the orders were:

General Time Corp., Westclox Division, La Salle, Ill. The order to the company said that "while your company has distributed many of these watch dials and hands, some remain in the possession of your company."

Elgin National Watch Co., Elgin, Ill. The same language appears in the AEC letter to Elgin, except that the reference is only to watch dials, not hands.

One Watch

Bulova Watch Co., Flushing, N.Y. Bulova was said to have imported one watch, subsequently sold to a member of the public, whose dial contained strontium 90.

Also named was:

American Phosphors Corp., Valley Forge center, King of Prussia, Pa. The firm was accused of importing a quantity of strontium 90 last November without a license from the AEC. A commission spokesman said American Phosphors manufactures luminous compounds; he did not know their exact nature.

All 4 letters were dated April 24 and signed by H. L. Price, director of the division of licensing and regulation. The firms were accused of violating Atomic Energy Act regulations which say strontium 90 may be imported and used only under AEC license.

Achievement Of A-Spaceship Is Promising—AEC Scientist

Washington (AP)—An Atomic Energy Commission scientist said early experiments look promising for ultimate achievement of nuclear-powered spaceships.

Dr. R. E. Schreiber of AEC's Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory told a newsman "we're right in the middle of a program designed to demonstrate the technical feasibility" of such flight.

Schreiber said tests have been conducted at the commission's site in Nevada where a nuclear reactor has been placed atop a railroad car to ground-test principles conceivable for spaceship propulsion.

There is no intent to propel the railroad car by nuclear power, he said, explaining it's simply being used as a platform to study the reactor's capabilities of furnishing heat energy in such a way that hydrogen gas fed into the furnace would be expelled with proper performance characteristics to propel a spacecraft.

Schreiber declined to venture any guesses as to when nuclear-powered space flight might become practical.

The scientist made the remarks in amplifying on a technical talk he gave to the annual spring meeting of the American Physical Society.

Sen. Williams:

New Bingo Bill Needs Full Hearing

Sen. Dwain Williams of Broken Bow has recommended that the new bingo bill expected soon from the governor be given a full fledged public hearing.

The Legislature could suspend the rules and bring the bill to the floor without a committee hearing.

Williams, chairman of the Government Committee which hammered out the form of the vetoed bingo bill, LB86, was summoned to the governor's office Friday for a conference on the substitute bill.

Williams said he recommended then that the new bill go through the hearing procedure.

Representative of such organizations as the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Eagles Lodge, which spearheaded the petition drive for the constitutional amendment legalizing bingo, should be given a chance to appear at public hearing on the new bill, Williams said.

The new bingo bill is expected to reach the Legislature next week.

Muni Ill

Hollywood (AP) — Actor Paul Muni was admitted to Cedars of Lebanon Hospital for treatment of an upper respiratory infection.

A physician said the illness was not serious. Muni, 61, is expected to be hospitalized several days.

State Surgeons Elect Dr. Elias

Dr. Houghton Elias of Beatrice was elected president of the Nebraska Chapter of the American College of Surgeons at the group's annual meeting in Omaha Friday, succeeding Dr. William Hamsa of Omaha.

A change in the by-laws of the group was made to provide for the naming of a president-elect, eliminating the post of vice president.

Dr. Richard E. Garlinghouse of Lincoln was named president - elect and Dr. Dwight Cherry of Lincoln, secretary-treasurer.

The fall clinic of the group will be held Nov. 15 in Fremont.

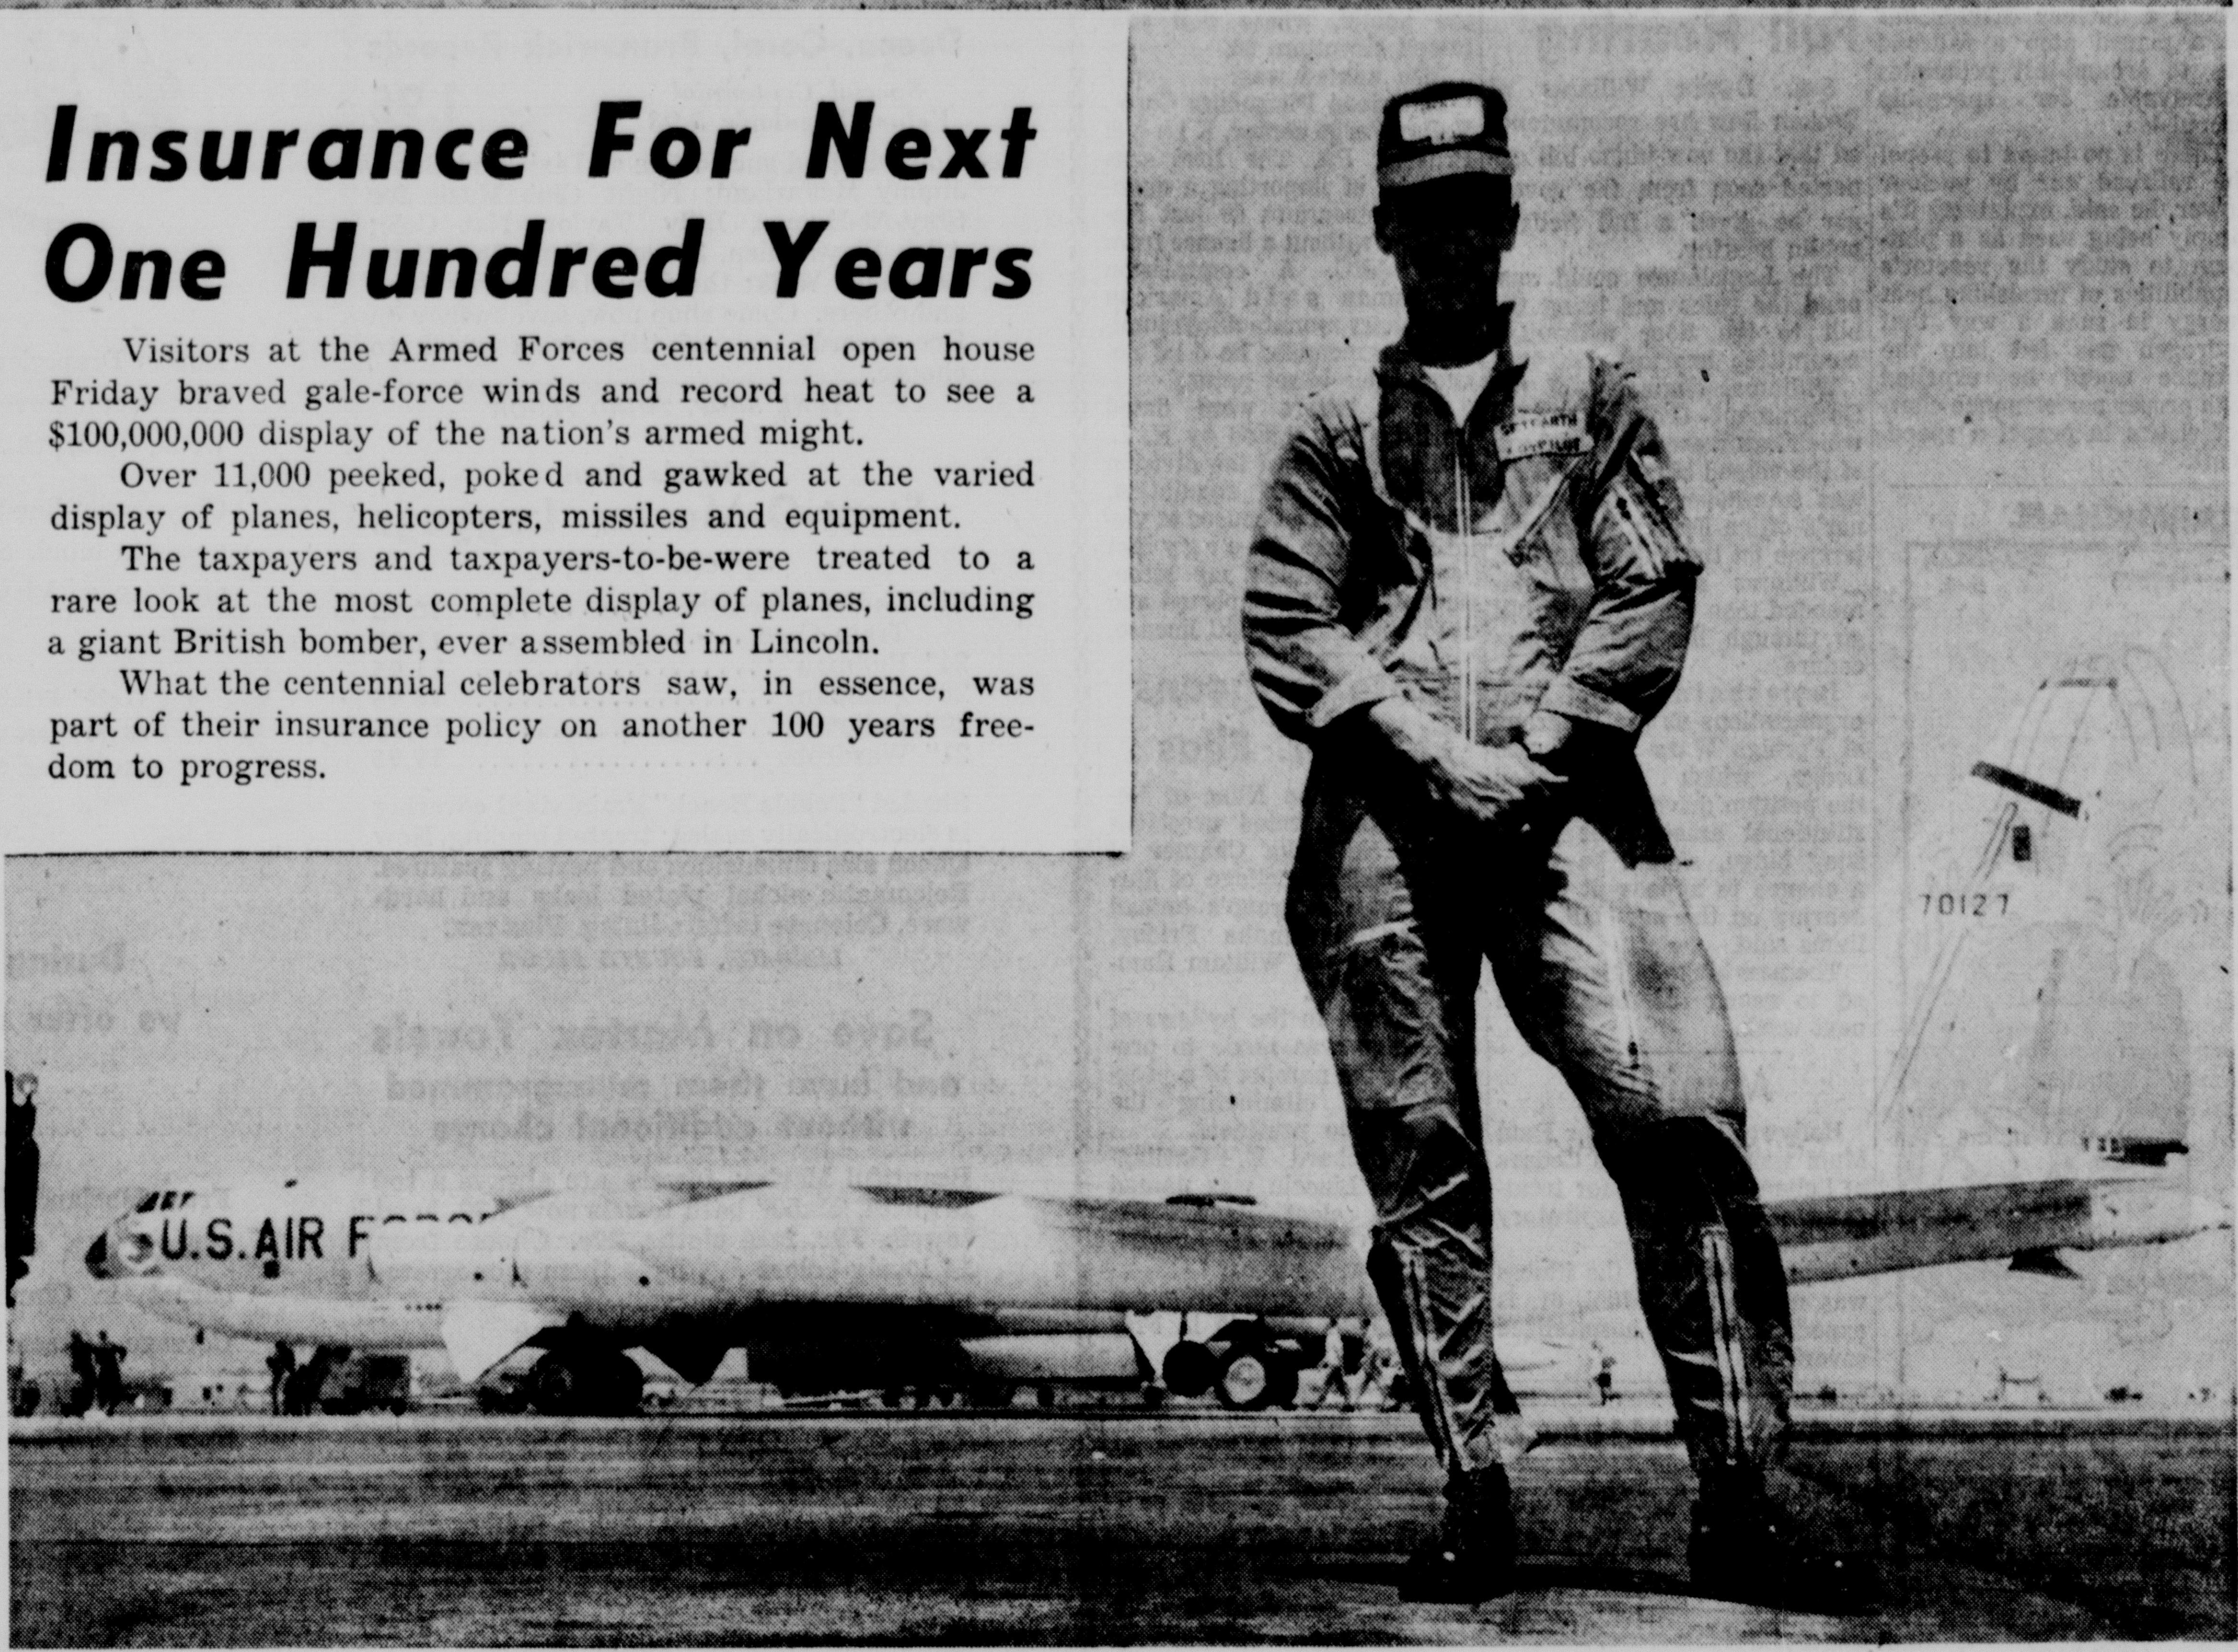
Insurance For Next One Hundred Years

Visitors at the Armed Forces centennial open house Friday braved gale-force winds and record heat to see a $100,000,000 display of the nation's armed might.

Over 11,000 peeked, poked and gawked at the varied display of planes, helicopters, missiles and equipment.

The taxpayers and taxpayers-to-be-were treated to a rare look at the most complete display of planes, including a giant British bomber, ever assembled in Lincoln.

What the centennial celebrators saw, in essence, was part of their insurance policy on another 100 years freedom to progress.



Flying Officer John Boetius of London, England, stands before the Victor jet bomber (ABOVE). Capt. David Seyfarth of Houston, Tex., stands before the B52 he copilots (RIGHT).

The variety of planes brought a variety of viewing techniques. Cathy Schrawger, 5, of 3800 Worthington found a perch in the jet engine of an F102 (LEFT) and the biggest drawing card was the air show as thousands crane their necks (BELOW) as Nebraska Air Guard jets streak by. Little Teddy Gillespie, 3, of 2602 N looks awed as he stands in the cavernous C124.

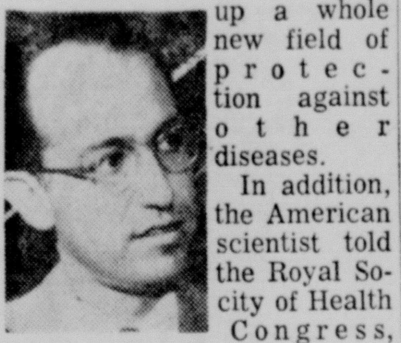
Salk Foresees New Disease Protections

. . . Talks To 3,000 Doctors From 40 Nations



Dr. Salk

Harrogate, Eng. (AP) — Dr. Jonas Salk suggested that his anti-polio vaccine may open up a whole new field of protection against other diseases.

In addition, the American scientist told the Royal Society of Health Congress, new factors appeared to be emerging in the treatment of polio itself.

First, the vaccine protection appeared to last longer than expected.

Secondly, it seemed that many people who had never taken the vaccine might be polio sufferers today if it had never been invented.

Salk spoke to 3,000 doctors who came here from 40 countries. They gave him an ovation as he was presented with a scroll of honorary membership of the society.

Salk told the Congress that in developing his vaccine he had defied generally accepted medical theories. He had used a "killed virus," although most experts believed that lasting protection could be gained only from a living virus.

Figures for the fall in polio incidence since Salk injections were started in the United States at least challenged this reliance on live vaccines, Salk said. He added:

"The evidence so far available suggests that one result of the present scientific debate may be the firm establishment of a principle that will make it possible to bring under effective control through the use of killed virus vaccine, many of the virus diseases."

BOYLES SAYS . . .

Times have really changed since the days we people of the "fat 50's" grew up . . . all of us over forty years of age remember going to school when there was no parking problem, only parking problems . . . at the family dinner table we were more interested in seeing how much more our brothers and sisters were getting than worrying about what TV program we were going to see later on . . . families these days are subject to all types of pressures . . .

One national magazine proposes that we return to family "togetherness" . . . by the time Mom gets the Head Man off to work, kids in school, housework done, the automatic dials set, and takes in church, school, and club activities, and sometimes holds down a part-time job, it's a wonder she can hold together at all.

Children are supposed to be a comfort to parents in their old age and most times they help their parents reach old age pretty quick. As soon as they are out of elementary school it isn't long before they reach the awkward age—that's when they are too young to leave alone and too old to trust with the baby sitter.

Times have changed too for the "city family" as a town grows up, expands, and becomes a complex metropolitan city. The handling of the family's affairs isn't as simple as when the head of the household just had a small family.

But one thing remains the same. ALL the members of the family should be at the family gathering and no family member's opinion should go unheard.

Our Lincoln city government is made up of adults and there is no place in city administration for the immaturity of young children's thinking. Just as a wise father plans for the future by putting away a little each month for emergencies, wise planning with a long-range view is needed in our present city government.

The time has come to transfer the management of the city family to a head of the household who is progressive, impartial, mature and firm. I hope you approve this transfer when you vote next Tuesday, May 5th.

GOP Eyes Problem Of Defining Party Philosophy For Voters

Highland Park, Ill. (UPI) — Republican party task forces wrestled with the problem of how to define the party's philosophy in terms that the voters will understand.

Members of the Republican committee on program and progress were warned in closed session that a majority of Americans do not feel that the party, or even its name, stands for what they believe in.

"This is a stark fact we must face up to," one party leader said.

The party's national chairman, Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky, added a warning that the GOP must not repeat its mistakes of 1956 and 1958, when he said the Republicans "ran a bunch of 60-year-olds" against young, personable Democrats.

Political System

The warning was issued during a discussion on "parties in the American political system." The discussion was led by Dr. Harry Jaffa, associate professor of political science at Ohio State University.

Two "task forces" of the committee submitted interim reports on the findings they have made since it was established in February to examine and define long-range party goals.

Charles Ducommun, Los Angeles businessman, reported for the task force on "the impact of science and technology." Benjamin S. Adamowski, Cook County (Chicago) state's attorney, substituted for Miss Bertha Adkins of Maryland, chairman, on the studies of the task force on "human rights and needs."

Not Public

Neither report was made public. Members of the 43-member committee stressed that studies by both groups and two other task forces were still in the formative stage.

At a news conference, Morton said the GOP was seeking to redefine its policy in language "our candidates can get across to the voter."

Morton said he hoped the committee would emerge by Sept. 1 with a "good sound policy" that the party can use to good advantage in writing its 1960 platform.

Two Geneva Escapees Committed To Federal Custody Until 21

By Virgil Falloon

Two girls who escaped from the Geneva Training School and kidnapped a farmer were committed to federal custody until 21 years-old by Federal Judge Robert Van Pelt Friday.

Janet Lou Spegel, 16, of Lexington, and Peggy Ann Moore, 18, of Omaha were prosecuted in U.S. District Court under the federal delinquency code in connection with transporting a stolen car across state lines.

Both pleaded guilty to the juvenile delinquency complaint after waiving other legal processes and consenting to arraignment under the federal juvenile delinquency code.

Judge Van Pelt committed the girls to the custody of the attorney general until they are 21 years old.

Not Ready

He said the facts in the case didn't warrant returning the girls to society at this time.

Deputy U.S. Atty. Dean Wallace said that the kidnaping charges that were pending would be dismissed against the two teenage girls.

Judge Van Pelt commended Arthur E. Perry and Frederick H. Wagener, both Lincoln attorneys who were court-appointed to represent the two girls, "for your fine efforts and work" in the case.

The jurist specifically noted attorneys appointed by the federal court in criminal cases "serve without fees or expenses" in contrast to some state jurisdictions.

West Virginia

The teenage girls, according to Wallace, will probably be committed to federal youth correctional facilities in West Virginia.

The federal charges grew out of their escape from the Geneva Training School on March 21, when they forced a 6-foot, 200-pound Geneva farmer to drive them to Kansas where they were captured.

Authorities said the girls were armed with a 22-caliber pistol and butcher knives during the incident.

The girls were returned under federal custody to Nebraska in connection with a kidnaping complaint filed originally in the case.

A REAL LIFE-SAVER

City Light Dept. lineman Walter Davis of 900 No. 58th, credited with saving the life of a fellow lineman who touched a hot wire in downtown Lincoln, explains to Police Cruiser Officer Cliff Doran how the accident occurred. Injured was lineman Leonard Deterding of 1836 L, who suffered severely burned hands. (Star Photo)

City Lineman Saves Life Of Electrocuted Workman

A City Light Dept. lineman was credited by police with saving the life of a fellow workman who accidentally brushed against a 220-volt power line Friday morning at 12th and O.

Police said lineman Leonard Deterding, 25, of 1836 L, was knocked unconscious when he touched a live wire while connecting light lines for use during construction of the centennial mall.

But lineman Walter Davis, 27, of 900 No. 58th, immediately climbed the power pole and applied artificial respiration to Deterding and then brought him down.

Police and firemen who arrived soon after with a resuscitator said Davis' quick action probably saved Deterding's life.

Deterding suffered severely burned hands but was reported in fairly good condition at a local hospital.

Scores of shoppers and spectators watching construction of the mall witnessed the accident.

Duke 'Visits'

At a 4 o'clock service solemnized Friday, May 1, at the First Methodist Church in Honolulu, Hawaii, Miss Patricia Ann Kinney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence W. Pollard, became the bride of Larry Robert Bowker, son of Mrs. Millicent Bowker. Lighted candles and arrangements of white gladioli formed the background for the ceremony, which was read by the Rev. Robert Fiske in the presence of a small group of friends.

The maid of honor and bride's only attendant was Miss Sandra Schuller of El Paso, Tex., who wore a sheath frock of yellow brocaded cotton with a matching head bandeau of velvet. She carried a lei of yellow plumeria.

Willard Knudson of Honolulu, formerly of Lincoln, served as best man.

The bride chose for her wedding a sleeveless sheath ensemble in white brocaded cotton flaring into circle fullness at the hemline. Her white flowered cap was briefly veiled with illusion, and she carried a lei of purple-tipped white orchids.

A reception was held at 1551 Thurston Ave., Honolulu, where the couple will reside.

Dear Abby . . .

Close Up Shop, Mom!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Mother's Day is coming again and I get tired just thinking about it. Last year my 7 children (all married) came for supper. They brought their families and we number 38 and ate in 3 shifts. I got up at five-thirty in the morning to start the supper. Nobody helped me peel a potato and they all started comin at five o'clock with their kids. I wiped noses, heated bottles, changed diapers, answered questions and waited on everybody trying to make them feel comfortable and welcome. They left my house upside down and it took me a week to clean it up. I still love them but I am wondering how many more Mothers' Days I can take like the last one? Any suggestions?

AVERAGE MOTHER

DEAR AVERAGE: If this is the way your children "honor" their mother on MOTHER'S DAY, It's time you spoke up. Tell them on MOTHER'S DAY the kitchen and nursery are closed. Get yourself all prettied up and let them take YOU out for dinner. It's supposed to be YOUR day—not THEIRS.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: May I make a suggestion on how to handle univited guests when they "drop in" and spoil your plans? Keep your coat and hat hanging near the door. When the doorbell rings, slip it on in a hurry, and then open the door. If it's someone you do not wish to entertain, tell them how sorry you are that you were just leaving and are already ten minutes late. If it's someone you want to entertain invite them in and tell them you just got home. It works ten times out of ten. Cordially.

R. F. K.

DEAR R. F. K.: And what do you do if you say you are leaving, and the "guest" offers to go with you?

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: Pease tell "LOVES TO DANCE" to tell her mother-in-law to keep her big moth shut and to keep right on dancing. When my first baby was two weeks overdue I won a Jitterbug contest at the Civic Auditorium and have the pictures to prove it. I am expecting my second baby any day now and am dancing my fool head off.

STILL DANCING

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, enclose a self-addressed envelope.

Traffic Accidents Claim 3 More Lives

By United Press International

Three traffic deaths were reported in Nebraska, two resulting from earlier traffic accidents and the third caused by a car-truck crash near Elm Creek.

The deaths raised the 1959 traffic toll in the state to 85, against 83 deaths during the same period last year.

The victims:

Mrs. Mina Clarke, 78, Broken Bow.

Robert Palmer, 74, Elm Creek.

Otto Rican, 29, Omaha.

Mrs. Clarke died of injuries suffered in a one-car crash April 22 about 5 miles northwest of Broken Bow.

Mrs. Clarke was a passenger in a car driven by her daughter, Mrs. Emma Hann, 47, Broken Bow. The Safety Patrol said the Hann car hit loose gravel, went out of control and rolled into a ditch.

Mrs. Hann suffered a fractured pelvis and her daughter, Jo Ann, 14, suffered scratches.

Palmer died in a Holdrege hospital of internal injuries suffered earlier when his car collided with a semi-trailer truck at the junction of U.S. Highways 30 and 183.

The Safety Patrol said Palmer was westbound on U.S. Highway 30 when he made a left turn onto 183, swinging into the path of the truck. The truck was driven by Delvin Harms, 40, Sterling, Colo.

Palmer did not appear seriously injured when he got out of his car but examination at the Holdrege hospital disclosed the internal injuries.

Rican died of injuries suffered in a one-car crash April 17.

His car went out of control on West Center Street, striking a culvert and rolling over several times.

Rican was alone at the time of the crash.

Frontier, Sidney Reach Agreement

Sidney, Neb. (AP) — Frontier Airlines and the city of Sidney have agreed on an airport rental and landing fee contract.

At a meeting the city and airline agreed on a figure of $4,169 per year, including $2,959 landing fee. Originally Sidney had asked $3,259 landing fee.

Vern Carlson, Frontier's coordinator of traffic and sales, told the council Sidney may get a Cheyenne link on the Omaha to Denver route the latter part of the year.

Carlson said the Denver-Scottsbluff - Alliance - North Platte segment will be studied for 60 days after July 1 and Frontier hopes to integrate Cheyenne and Sidney in this segment.

AAUW Takes Public Stand Favoring Academic Freedom

. . . Action Inspired By Bernstein Controversy

North Platte, Neb. (AP) —The Nebraska Division of the American Association of University Women took a public stand Friday in behalf of academic freedom.

Although the name of University of Nebraska law college Prof. Merton Bernstein did not appear in the text of their message, a telegram inspired by the controversy over Bernstein was drafted and dispatched to state and University of Nebraska heads.

The telegram said.

"The Nebraska Division of the American Association of University Women now meeting in their annual convention in North Platte, reaffirms the principle of academic freedom. Believing with Justice Holmes that 'the best approximation of truth is arrived at not by covering up or ruling out differences, but by their free competition in the open market place of ideas,' the state division deplores any legislative action which presses for conformity of opinion in violation of academic freedom."

The telegram was signed by Dr. Leona Mae Failor of Kearney State College, president of the Nebraska division of AAUW.

It was addressed to Gov. Ralph Brooks, Lt. Gov. Dwight Burney, Sen. Harry Pizer, speaker of the Legislature and University Chancellor Clifford Hardin.

Discussion of the Bernstein affair and preparation of the telegram upset the agenda of the opening session of the convention.

State Sen. Jack Romans of Ord earlier this week delivered to the Legislature a resolution asking an investigation of faculty hiring practices at the University of Nebraska.

This resolution made no direct reference to Bernstein but Romans had said earlier it was prompted by the Bernstein affair.

Bernstein, who helped Gov. Brooks draft a labor relations bill, came under criticism atfer he wrote the legislature acknowledging that he formerly held membership in Americans for Democratic Action. He had told the labor committee of the legislature earlier that he was not and had not been an ADA member.

Romans' resolution declared that it had been disclosed "that certain members of the University of Nebraska College of Law are not proper persons to teach in a state university."

Chancellor Clifford Hardin defended the right of faculty members to express themselves "on all subjects according to their own best judgments."

No Definite Favorite For 85th Derby Run Today

Louisville, Ky. (AP) — The starting gate snaps open today in the most unpredictable Kentucky Derby in the memory of old timers, with 18 thoroughbreds scheduled to perform in the 1¼ mile classic.

If all show up for the 85th running, it will be the second richest Derby with a purse of $165,000. The winner would net $120,000, second only to the $123,450 earned by Needles in 1956.

The weather man predicted a fast track, mostly sunny skies, and a temperature of 84 degrees by post time, 3:30 p.m., CST.

Oddsmakers pick First Landing, owned by Christopher T. Chenery of Virginia and New York. He was quoted by 3 to 1 and will be ridden by Eddie Arcaro, the leading Derby jockey. Arcaro will be seeking his 6th

But Tony Lee, the British-bred, Texas owned, and California-raced colt of Fred Turner Jr., could wind up as the favorite when the mobs march on the parimutuel windows. Tomy Lee was listed at 4 to 1. Willie Shoemaker, his rider, plucked the roses with California's Swaps 4 years ago, beating Arcaro and Nashua.

The biggest unanswered question is Calumet Farm's On-And-On. Trainer Jimmy Jones hasn't decided whether the colt will run.

Jones and Calumet have won the trophy two consecutive years with Iron Liege and Tim Tam. Nobody ever has won 3 straight.

"I hate to mislead you fellows," Jimmy told newsmen. "We may not know until the last minute whether he'll start.

Jockey Johnny Heckman galloped On-And-On today, and probably will be aboard if Calumet shoots for its 8th derby.

The uncertainty caused The Churchill Downs parimutuel department to place On-And-On in the mutuel field with 5 others. Odds on the field were 20 to 1, a price that will drop if On-And-On starts.

C. V. Whitney's Silver Spoon, only filly in the race, is listed at 10 to 1 but sentiment could cut that price.

Brookmeade Stable's Sword Dancer is 3rd choice at 5 to 1 and Jim Norris' Easy Spur is 4th at 6 to 1.

Others in the classic are Patrice Jacobs' Our Dad, the Briardale Farm's Rico Tesio, the Elkcam Stable and Lou Chesler entry of Atoll and Open View, the Claiborne Farm's Dunce, Neil S. McCarthy's Finnegan, Bayard Sharp's Troilus, Kenneth Marshall's John Bruce, the Jacnot Stable's Die Hard, C. B. Fischbach's Festival King, Mrs. S. Helen Sadacca's The Chosen One and Mrs. Jacques Braunstein's Royal Orbit.

There isn't a seat available in the huge stands which run from the head of the stretch where the race starts and down around the first turn. The Derby usually attracts an estimated 100,000.

The race will be broadcast and televised nationally (CBS) from 3:15-3:45 p.m.

"It's a tough one to figure," said Casey Hayes, First Landing's trainer.

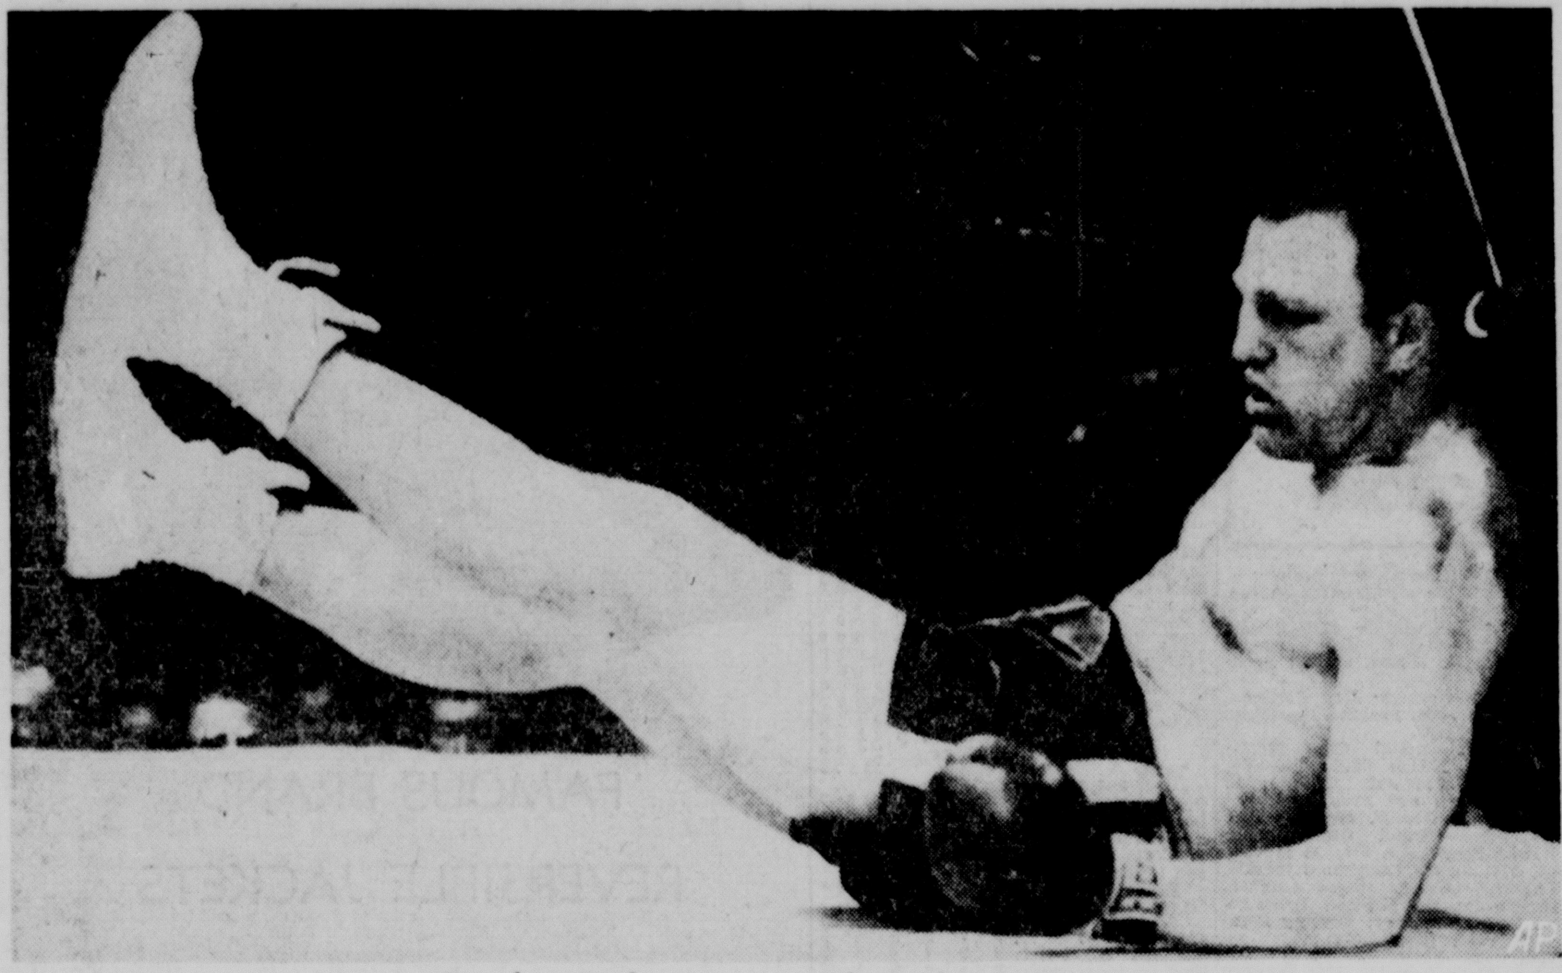
Patterson Chops Down London To Keep Title



London is down . . . and on the way out.

ChampionKOs Briton In 11th

. . . Brian Is Beaten Badly

Indianapolis (AP)—Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, fighting in quick savage bursts of body punches, chopped down Britain's Brian London and knocked him out with a left hook to the head in 51 seconds of the 11th round of a title fight Friday night.

London was on the deck for a 5-count when the bell sounded ending the 10th after absorbing a heavy right hand punch to the head from the champion.

Sensing that the end was near in this "tuneup" for his June 25 bout with Sweden's Ingemar Johansson, the champ came out for the kill in the 11th.

Patterson, making the 4th defense of his world boxing title, stormed after the lantern-jawed challenger flailing away with his searing left hook. As burly Brian staggered back, dazed and bewildered, Patterson threw a left hook to that jut jaw.

Down went London on the seat of his britches. As referee Frank Sikora picked up the count, London rolled over on his side and you knew he wasn't going to get up. Sikora tolled off the full 10-count and London never moved until his corner men came to get him.

London, a forlorn 10 to 1 shot who was not even given a permit to box the champ by his own British Board of Boxing Control, made menacing gestures but did not win a round on two of the official cards.

Hulking over the champion with a 25¾-pound edge in the weights at 208 to Patterson's 182¼, London absorbed a steady body-thumping throughout the fight.

From time to time, the challenger drew cheers from the crowd with his right to the head. Two or 3 times he managed to get it home. Most of the time it slid harmlessly over Patterson's head as he ducked and moved inside.

Referee Sikora, imported from Chicago for the occasion, had it 10-0 on his scorecard, judge Kelse McClure had it 9-0 with the 3rd even and judge Marshall Baumgartner scored the 3rd for London and called the 7th even on an 8-1-1 card. On the official "5-point" must system used in Indiana. Sikora had it 50-34, McClure 50-40 and Baumgartner 49-40.

On the Associated Press card it was 9-0-1 in rounds and 50-39 in points.

Bunt Single Ruins No-Hit Game By Chiefs' Al Brice

. . . Lincoln Thumps Green Bay In Series Opener, 8-2

By Don Bryant

Big Al Brice—firing in superlative fashion—allowed just one hit Friday night as the Lincoln Chiefs greeted Green Bay with an 8-2 licking at Sherman Field.

The 6-4 righthander came within a bunt single of posting a no-hitter.

Adding an additional measure of joy to the evening was the stick work of the Chiefs. While they managed only 5 hits off 3 Blue Jay chuckers, two of them were doubles and one was a triple. And all were timely.

Pity of the evening was the fact that only 385 fans took advantage of the shirt-sleeve weather to sit in on the sparkler.

The same teams hook up in the second game of the series tonight at Sherman Field, starting at 8 p.m. It will be Centennial Night, with celebrants boasting beards or old time costumes being admitted at reduced prices.

Ackley Tonight

Fritz Ackley, hard luck loser of the opening game, will be on the mound for the Chiefs. Pete Richert will pitch for the Jays.

But back to Brice. He ran into trouble only once, in the 4th inning after retiring the first 9 Jays he faced.

After George Scott bunted to lead off the 4th and lived on an error by Third Baseman Jack Haury, speedy Willy Davis followed suit.

And he beat out the bunt for a hit and on the same play Haury erred again, allowing Scott to score. Haury's 3rd boot of the inning plated the final Blue Jay run.

At this juncture, however, the Chiefs were in possession of 4 runs.

Bacon's Debut

Shortstop Don Bacon, making his debut, led off the first with a double and scored when Jim Lynn fouled out to right fielder Ron Rossi. Rossi plowed into the retaining fence after the catch and while he was undraping himself, Bacon tagged up and came all the way in from second.

Lynn's double, a walk and Joe Hennessy's triple, coupled with a single by Chuck Lehman added 3 more Lincoln tallies in the 4th.

Aided by a trio of walks, a pair of errors, a single by Lynn and a sacrifice fly the Chiefs put the frosting on Brice's dandy in the 7th.

Brice fanned 10 enroute to his first win and he retired the Jays in order in all but the 4th and 8th inning. The lanky fire-baller walked only two and one of these was erased in a double play.

Green Bay starter Dave Ramnes, who kept himself in trouble by walking 8, drew the loss.

Smoke Signals . . . On hand to see Brice mow down the Jays was Glen Miller, farm director of the Chicago White Sox . . . While it was a close play, there was no question about the lone hit. Davis dropped a perfect bunt and really motored to first . . . It was a snappy 2:03 affair. . . Sunday's homestand finale with Green Bay will start at 2 p.m. . . . Green Bay catcher Doug Camilli is the son of former Dodger great, Dolph Camilli.

Tolly Chucks 5-Hit Victory

. . . NU Trips Oklahoma State

By Paul LeBar

Big 8 leader Oklahoma State's baseball fortunes went up in a cloud of dust Friday afternoon as host Nebraska mauled the Cowboys 7-2 on the University's windswept diamond.

Curve-balling Roy Peterson, the Oklahomans' winningest pitcher, was the victim of 11 Cornhusker hits and 6 errors in the field behind him. Peterson was lost after Nebraska had exploded for a 3-run outburst to take command in the 6th, and then kayoed the chucker with another flurry in the 8th.

Fastballer Harry Tolly outlived streaks of wildness to quell all Oklahoma threats over the 9-inning haul. The North Platte junior surrendered 3 hits in the opening 3 frames, then had the Cowboys handcuffed until a minor rally developed in the last inning.

Tolly wound up with a 5-hitter while uncorking 3 wild pitches and picking up his second win of the season.

Nebraska terminated the contest with a well-executed triple play after two State players had opened the 9th with singles.

Dave Murakami, pint-sized Honolulu, Hawaii shortstop, shared the hero's role with Tolly.

With two down, the score tied and the sacks jammed in Nebraska's big 6th, he whacked a Peterson fastball into left field and gave the Cornhuskers a 4-2 command.

Oklahoma's chances died when 3 successive errors in the 8th brought home two more runs for Nebraska.

Murakami then smacked his second successive single to put the frosting on the cake.

The pitchers' battle at hand was settled after Murakami opened up a gap in the same frame.

Oklahoma State got good mileage out of 3 hits for 6 innings. The Cowboys took a 1-0 edge off a pair of singles, a passed ball and a wild pitch in the second, but Nebraska tied via Tolly's RBI-single in the bottom half of the same frame.

Jesifers Peps LHS To City Track Win

. . . Duel Between Milers Features 6th Annual Meet

HOW THEY SCORED

Lincoln High	95½
Lincoln Northeast	60½
Lincoln Southeast	50

By Al Beebe

Five victories by Juris Jesifers led Lincoln High to a 6th straight Lincoln Public School track championship at O. N. Magee Stadium Friday night in a meet highlighted by a dramatic mile run.

Jack Clair of Lincoln Southeast edged LHS' Dick Ripley at the wire in the mile, writing SE's name in the record book for the first time with a 4:42.6 clocking.

The strong wind hampered most efforts, but 3 records were set. Jesifers got one of them, upping his own high jump mark to 5-10⅝.

The lean Links ace also swept the hurdles, won the broad jump and tied for a first with teammate Doug Greenlee in the pole vault. Jesifers also ran the lead-off leg on the winning Lincoln High mile relay team.

Glen Heiser of Lincoln Northeast got the other new mark, also breaking a record he, himself, set a year ago. Heiser cut the 440 time to 53.1.

Heiser led teammates Allen Neeman and Gary Palmer across in a blanket 440 finish to give Northeast 12 big points in the event and break up a close battle with the Knights for second. Southeast's 50 points, however, marked by far the best showing made by SE in the 6-year history of the meet.

The mile run duel was easily the standout event of the meet, although Clair has turned in a faster clocking this year. Clair led for most of the first two laps, with Ripley taking over near the end of the second tour.

The two juniors kept apace for another lap, with Clair moving ahead on the first turn of the final lap. Coming out of the turn, however, Ripley forged back into the lead. But he couldn't hold off the homestretch drive by Clair, who pulled even with a stride to go.

Ripley made a dive for the tape but Clair was there first.

In dramatic contrast, Clair continued around the track for another lap, while Ripley, still not completely back in shape after early-season illness, sprawled in the cinders.

Ripley came back in the mile relay, however.

Cards Explode To Topple Bucs, 7-6

...Stuart Belts 2-Run Homer

Pittsburgh (AP)—The St. Louis Cards exploded for 14 hits Friday night to down the Pittsburgh Pirates 7-6 and hand pitcher Bob Friend his 4th straight loss of the season.

But the victory wasn't easy to come by as the Pirates came back from a 7-1 deficit to score 5 runs in the last 3 innings. The rally was highlighted by a two run homer by Dick Stuart in the last half of the 9th.

The Cards had Pirate pitchers in trouble in almost every inning after the 3rd. They exploded for 3 runs in the 4th, one in the 5th and 3 in the 7th.

Starter Vinegar Bend Mizell, who went 7 1/3 innings, chalked up his 3rd victory of the season against one defeat. Jim Brosnan finished the game for the Cards.

Plainsmen Rap Concordia To Nab 3rd Place, 25-7

Nebraska Wesleyan's unpredictable baseballers roared into 3rd place in the Nebraska College Baseball Conference at the University Place diamond Friday afternoon, smashing Concordia Teachers College 25-7 in a wild, 3-hour contest.

Lonnie Slaughter, Rosalie junior righthander, was the winner as the Plainsmen slammed 25 base hits against 4 Concordia moundsmen. Starter Gary Kunckel of the losers was around for only two-innings plus as Wesleyan exploded for 6-run outbursts in both the second and 3rd frames.

That wrapped up the victory although Slaughter required assistance in the 5th, when Concordia scored 4 runs.

Catcher Lonnie Johnson, with a 5-for-7 day at the plate, and Ron Gillham and Ron Bachman, each with 4-for-6, were Wesleyan's hitting stars.

Francona's Pinchhit Homer Beats Yanks

Cleveland (AP) — Pinch-hitter Tito Francona blasted a 3-run homer in the 10th inning to give the Cleveland Indians a 4-2 come-back victory over the New York Yankees Friday night.

The other big blow for first place Cleveland was Rocky Colavito's 5th inning homer, the only blot against righthander Art Ditmar, who pitched an otherwise 7 perfect innings.

The Yankees bounced back into the ball game with two out in the 9th to tie the score on a double by Bill Skowron and Yogi Berra's single. The World Champions, who lost their 9th in 16 starts, went ahead in the 10th. Again with two out, Bobby Richardson singled, pinch-looker Hank Bauer walked and Tony Kubek bounced a run-scoring single into right for a 2-1 lead.

Cleveland won it in a wild finale.

Mantle Suffers Fractured Digit

Cleveland (AP)—Mickey Mantle, New York Yankee center fielder suffered a chip fracture of his right index finger when hit by a pitched ball Thursday night, X-ray pictures Friday showed.

The accident happened during batting practice before the Yankee game with the White Sox in Chicago. Duke Maas was on the mound and Mantle was finishing his practice swings with an attempted bunt. The pitch came close to his face and Mantle threw up his hand as a protection, the ball hitting the finger.

Doctors said the digit would be sore approximately a week but that Mantle could resume play as soon as he was able to grip a bat.

Killebrew's Second Homer Beats Tigers

Detroit (AP)—Harmon Killebrew smashed Jim Bunning's 3-and-2 pitch a dozen rows into the upper left field seats Friday and gave the Washington Senators a stirring 4-3 triumph over the Detroit Tigers in a 10-inning duel.

It was Killebrew's second home run of the day and his 5th of the season, and brought Cuban Camilo Pascual the victory in a well-pitched battle with the Detroit righthander.

Bunning, whose gopher-ball tendencies have cost him more than 60 homeruns in the last two seasons, yielded a second inning home run to the young Washington 3rd baseman. That one was a towering smash several rows into the upper left field pavilion.

The Tigers, who now have lost 14 games in 16 decisions would have won the game over the regulation distance except for a pair of 8th inning errors by two former Washington infielders. Third baseman Eddie Yost and shortstop Rocky Bridges both bobbled grounders as the Senators scored an unearned run and pulled from behind for a 2-2 tie.

Bunning had only himself to blame for the other Washington run. He walked the first two batters he faced in the 4th inning and ex-Tiger J. W. Porter scored a runner with a line single to left field.

Pascual went the route for the first time in 3 starts and got his first victory in 3 decisions as the Senators made it two in a row over the last place Detroiters.

Pascual spaced 8 hits, the Tigers bunching most of them in the first and 6th innings.

Yost led off the game with his 5th home run and the Tigers added one more run in the first on a pair of singles and Bridges' sacrifice fly. The first 3 batters for Detroit hit safely in the 6th, but the Tigers could score only once.

GAO Says AF Went $60 Million Over Budget On Academy

Washington (AP)—A watchdog agency said the Air Force has spent or obligated on its new academy nearly 60 million dollars more than Congress gave it permission to spend.

What's more, the cost of the service school at Colorado Springs, Colo., may go to nearly double what Congress has authorized by law, the General Accounting Office reported.

GAO, which keeps tabs on the way money is spent by federal agencies, told Congress the Air Force has switched funds around without informing the House and Senate and has spent money on projects which in some cases later were denied approval.

There was no immediate comment from the Air Force.

Hot Water

The Air Force Academy, counter part of the Army's West Point and the Navy's Annapolis, has been in hot water with Congress from time to time, almost from its beginning.

There were complaints about its ultra-modern architecture, and of alleged Air Force extravagance in planning its officer training school in the foothills of the Rockies.

In its report, GAO said Congress has authorized 139 million dollars to build and equip the academy. But the agency said that to date there has been actual spending or obligation of 197 million dollars "and anticipated additional costs of 72 million, a total cost of 269 million dollars."

The GAO said the Air Force contends some of the anticipated facilities may never be built.

Other Purposes

On other points, the report said more than 6 million dollars specifically earmarked before Congress as being for family housing had been used for other purposes.

The Air Force was criticized for spending 3½ million dollars on an airfield for the academy without congressional okay. The report said the Air Force plans to spend at least 19 million for a runway and other facilities in the face of indications that the field "may have limited capability and may create an air traffic problem."

"The Air Force has not disclosed these facts to the Congress although the necessity for an airfield at the academy has been questioned repeatedly in congressional hearings," the watchdog agency said.

Meet Star Carrier Steve Lawson

Musically inclined Stephen Lawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Lawson of 5842 Madison, is this weeks' Star Carrier of the Week.

Lawson

Steve plays both the piano and trom bone and, of course, lists music as his favorite subject. He is also very active in scout work and has recently received his God and Country award. Canoeing is his favorite pastime.

Steve serves his customers on his route which runs between 52nd and 61st and from Adams to St. Paul. His customers report they always receive excellent service because Steve believes in prompt early delivery.

Steve, 8th grade student at Northeast, attends First Methodist Church and is an active member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship.

With his route profits of about $28 each period, he had purchased his own insurance policy, built a canoe and financed a canoe trip with his scout troop to Minnesota.

With an attitude that is healthy Steve has built an excellent customer-carrier relationship.

County Official Bill Held

The Legislature wrestled briefly and inconclusively Friday with the question of whether the law-making body should set the salaries of county officials.

Under action taken at a previous session, county commissioners and supervisors set the salaries of most county officials.

Two bills are pending designed to put the Unicameral back in the business of setting floors under county salaries.

At issue Friday was LB528, a measure to raise the qualifications and pay for county school superintendents.

Sen. George C. Gerdes of Alliance moved to kill the bill but action was deferred due to the absence of the bill's chief introducer, Sen. David Tews of Norfolk.

Degrees Required

The bill would require bachelor's degrees of superintendents in counties of less than 20,000 population; master's degrees in the larger counties. A scale of salaries is prescribed, ranging from $3,600 per year in counties of 3,000 or less, to $9,500 in counties or more than 100,000.

Sen. Orme, leading the fight for the bill, noted that 22 counties last year lacked candidates for the superintendent's job. The quality of school instruction depends on the quality of the superintendent, and the only way to get better superintendents is to set higher standards and then pay them adequately, she said.

Sens. A. A. Fenske of Sunol and Frank Nelson of O'Neill urged that any action be deferred until the 1961 session.

Sen. Marvin Lautenschlager of Grand Island said county commissioners have a duty to fix salaries.

Other action:

A bill authorizing the 4 state teacher colleges—at Peru, Chadron, Wayne and Kearney—to offer off-campus classes won first-round approval without debate.

Approved on general file was LB659, which would submit to voters next year a constitutional amendment having the effect of authorizing Nebraska corporations to issue preferred stock as well as common stock.

Van Sickle Company Sold To Omaha Firm

The Interstate Glass Co. of Omaha has purchased the Van Sickle Glass and Paint Co. of Lincoln, Wilton Van Sickle announced.

Van Sickle

The Omaha firm has purchased all merchandise manufactured at the factory and all stock in the uptown store located at 143 So. 10th St. The purchase also includes all glass equipment and fixtures, as well as the paint manufacturing machinery in the factory at 3rd and M Sts.

Wayne Harding Jr., president of Interstate, said they would continue to use the Van Sickle company name, or possibly a modification.

The present Van Sickle company will retain all buildings and grounds—both the uptown location and the factory—which have been rented to the new owners on an extended basis.

Van Sickle said he will change the name of the present corporation to Van Sickle Investment Co., of which he will serve as president.

The Van Sickle Co. has been in business in Lincoln for 59 years. The Omaha firm will take over operations immediately.

Van Sickle, son of a Bennet, Neb., painter, worked at the trade as a boy before founding his own business in 1900.

NU WOMEN'S GROUP OK'S BERNSTEIN

Another University of Nebraska student group Friday gave its backing to Prof. Merton Bernstein, author of Gov. Ralph Brooks' proposed state labor relations act.

The Black Masque chapter of Mortar Board, honor society of senior women, issued a statement saying "We are proud to have Professor Bernstein as a member of our faculty."

Bernstein has come under legislative fire for his role in the labor legislation.

Held 'Outstanding'

"We believe," the Mortar Board statement said, that Bernstein has been "outstanding in his contributions both as a representative of the University and as a citizen."

The statement called attention to the part Bernstein and his wife, Joan, played in chaperoning foreign students on a tour of the campus and a party later at their home during spring vacation.

"His keen interest in the students on the tour was apparent during the trip," it said.

The statement was sent to Gov. Brooks, Lt. Gov. Dwight Burney and Chancellor Clifford Hardin.

State Civil Service Bill Introduced

A bill setting up a state civil service system was introduced in the Legislature Friday at the request of the governor.

Sen. Norman Otto, Kearney, signed LB716 for Governor Brooks.

The bill sets up a Civil Service Commission and a director for its administration. It provides that the Commission and director will assume the functions of the present limited merit system council.

The present Merit System Council is limited to the Departments of Labor, Health and Welfare.

The bill provides for a 3-member Civil Service Commission to be appointed by the governor for staggered 6-year terms.

Exempted from the provisions of the act are elected officials, their deputies, members of boards, bureaus and commissions and heads of departments appointed by the governor, employes of the governor's office and Legislature, judges, referees, receivers, jurors and notaries public.

The bill appropriates $50,000 from the general fund to pay the initial expense of the installation and operation of the civil service system and classification of positions under it.

Olson Suit Transcript Filed With High Court

The transcript of a case involving the overflow of a hunting lake in Lancaster County onto neighboring grounds has been filed in the State Supreme Court.

The case is that of Carl and Ada Olson vs. the Arbor Lake Club, Inc., which was dismissed Feb. 7 in Lancaster County District Court. The Olson's have appealed to the Supreme Court.

The Olsons accuse the club of building a dam that caused the Olson land to be flooded. The court found that the overwaters had existed for more than 20 years, and the club has acquired a "prescriptive right" to allow it to continue.

STOCKS RISE MODERATELY

New York (AP) — The stock market ended 3 days of decline as a late rally gave the list a moderate boost Friday.

Trading slipped to 3,020,000 shares from 3,510,000 Thursday and was the lightest since April 10 when 3,000,000 shares changed hands.

An advance by rails and a sinking spell by tobaccos were highlights. Motors as well as selected electronics and photographic issues were higher and active.

Gains of key stocks ranged from fractions to a point or so. Bell & Howell soared 11 points. Its 2-for-1 stock split becomes effective soon.

The pattern was mixed for coppers, oils, airlines and aircrafts.

Brokers ascribed the rise chiefly to a technical recovery. They noted that trading has generally fallen off while prices were falling and that reports of first quarter earnings and other corporate news have been bullish.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 50 cents to $227.20 with the industrials up 80 cents, the rails up 90 cents and the utilities unchanged.

Of 1,236 issues traded, 537 rose and 456 fell. There were 40 new highs for the year and 32 new lows.

Eight of the 15 most active stocks advanced, 4 declined and 3 were unchanged.

Corporate bonds declined as trading volume diminished.

U.S. government bonds advanced in moderately active trading.

Bond sales totaled $4,750,000 par value.

Proposed Merger Hearing Planned

O'Neill, Neb. (AP) — A public hearing will be held May 11 on a proposal to merge 4 adjacent rural grade school districts with the Page School District.

This would bring about 30 more grade school children into the Page district.

Merwin French Jr., of Page, chairman of the Holt County Redistricting Committee, said if the plan goes through Page property owners might see a reduction of 10 mills in their school levy which presently is 53 mills.

May Contracts Guide Grains

Chicago (AP)—Grain futures activity on the Board of Trade Friday was guided almost entirely by speculative positions in the May contracts where about half the volume of business was done.

At times, prices of most of these deliveries were well ahead as short interests bid them up to cover commitments. However, the longs appeared as eager to sell out at the higher levels as the shorts were to even up and nearly all contracts closed within small fractions of previous finishes.

With commercial influences almost entirely absent and the outlook for even a moderate pickup not very good, longs in May wheat have been looking for any small bulges to liquidate. Circumstances in other grains, though, have not been so decidedly bearish.

Wheat closed ⅜ cents a bushel higher to ⅜ lower, May $1.93¼-⅛; corn ⅜ higher to ¼ lower, May $1.25⅜; oats ½ higher to ⅛ lower, May 66⅛-¼; rye 1¼ higher to ¼ lower, May $1.40¼-40, and soybeans ½-⅞ higher, May $2.28⅞-29.

Serious Threat

Istanbul, Turkey — Adm. Arleigh Burke, U.S. chief of naval operations, said he considers Communism in Iraq a serious threat to peace.

Speaking to newsmen on a 3-day visit to Turkey, Burke said: "I think from what I have read in the papers that Communists are taking more and more power in Iraq."

Gov. Brooks Recovery Completely Satisfactory

. . . Permanent Damage 'Unlikely,' Doctor Says

By Betty Person

Gov. Ralph Brooks is feeling "chipper," his rate of progress from his "mild stroke" is completely satisfactory, and he should be able to leave Lincoln General Hospital in the "next few days," his physician, Dr. Lee Stover, told reporters Friday.

The Lincoln physician said it is thought "unlikely" that Gov. Brooks will suffer any "permanent residual damage" as a result of the light stroke he suffered two weeks ago.

Dr. Stover said Brooks will be confined to the Governors Mansion "at least two to three weeks more" after he is out of the hospital, and that after a further recuperation period the governor will be able "to do about what he wants within reasonable limits . . . as much as any normal human being his age ought to."

Dr. Stover described the governor's stroke as a "cerebral thrombosis—a blod clot on a tiny artery of the brain."

Asked when the governor suffered the stroke, Stover answered, "There was no particular question but what he'd had something" when he was hospitalized, "but it takes time to evaluate how extensive it is."

'Not Severe Diabetes'

As for the chief executive's diabetic condition, Dr. Stover said it was "not particularly a severe form" of the ailment and that it is now controlled.

Asked if this was the first time it had been known the governor had diabetes, Dr. Stover said he thought there had been "no definite diagnosis" of diabetes heretofore, but that some excessive sugar had shown before in routine tests as it could on any person after a heavy meal.

Asked whether the governor had any speech impairment as a result of the stroke, Dr. Stover said there may be some "very, very minor involvement," but noted that Brooks has recently undergone extensive dental work and that "we really can't tell until he gets his new plates."

Physiotherapy

Brooks is receiving physiotherapy treatment for his right arm and leg which were left weak by the stroke. The treatment includes massage, passive exercise and heat treatments, he said.

No treatment is being given for the involvement on the left side of his face which is regarded as "temporary," Dr. Stover said, jokingly adding, "He'll exercise his face enough."

The physician said the governor is able to walk around and sit up and do some work, and that light work does not tire him.

Dr. Stover described Gov. Brooks as an "extremely cooperative" patient who "has done exactly what we've asked him to do."

New Trial Ordered In Arrest Suit

The state Supreme Court has reversed the Douglas County District Court and ordered a new trial in a false arrest and imprisonment suit.

George J. Barton brought the action against Walter F. Wilson and John R. Steiner. Barton claimed that Steiner falsely arrested him on March 18, 1956 and that after he had been arrested Wilson participated in the false imprisonment.

Barton was arrested by Steiner without a warrant and was booked for investigation at the Omaha Police Station. He was confined to jail until the following afternoon and was released on bond.

Barton never was charged with a criminal offense or a violation of city ordinances.

Justice John Yeager wrote the opinion.

The jury returned a verdict against Barton and for the defendants.

The Morrill County District Court was affirmed in a divorce case brought by Pauline Abel against Robert Abel. The Supreme Court modified the decree. Justice Fred Messmore wrote the opinion.

Monty Apologizes To 'My U.S. Friends'

London (AP)—Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery came home from Moscow Friday with a ready apology for "my American friends" for saying U.S. leadership is slipping.

Britain's most unpredictable soldier, without retracting his TV statement on American leadership, told a news conference:

"If I have caused offense to anybody on the other side of the Atlantic, I would like to apologize unreservedly for anything I said about American leadership."

It was noticed that the 71-year-old Montgomery did not specifically withdraw his criticism. Nor did he say he had changed his views.

But in expressing regret for having caused "resentment and ill feeling" in the United States, he looked a picture of remorse.

He repeated the apology to his audience 3 times, asked for it to be given the widest publicity and said he was under no sort of pressure to climb down.

2,000 NU Students Celebrate Spring

More than 2,000 University of Nebraska students participated in Spring Day contests on the campus Friday.

Games featured pushball, tug-o-wars, egg-catching, 3-legged races and pig-catching.

Burr Hall students piled 80 persons onto a moving car to win a contest to see how many could get on an automobile.

TICKET WINNERS

Mrs. Floyd Hibdon of 6135 Francis took first place in the Centennial Ball ticket-selling contest and won for her efforts a week's vacation for two at Daven Haven Lodge, Grand Lake, Colo.

Second prize, a long weekend stay for two at Excelsior Springs, Mo., went to Mrs. J. Edmunds Miller of 3040 Georgian Court.

BILLS ADVANCED

Legislative bills advanced Friday from general file on voice votes included:

LB484—Taking the $5 state teachers colleges matriculation fee from the special library book fund and placing it in general fund.

LB435—Letting first and second class cities and villages license dogs and kennels and provide for laws against dogs running loose.

LB664—including motels in the state's hotel and inn laws.

LB344—providing for assessment of street improvement costs against those who benefit as well as against the city as a whole.

LB340—authorizing Omaha to establish sewage and drainage districts within 3 miles of the city.

LB688 — amending LB119, already passed, to clarify provisions for extending fire and police protection outside of city limits.

LB363—providing for filing of affidavit to extend chattel mortgage beyond present 5 year limit.

LB689—providing for a 1960 vote on a constitutional amendment authorizing the Legislature to prescribe by law a method for contesting elections to executive state offices.

State Guard Is Streamlined To Meet 'Pentomic' Concept

A sweeping reorganization of the Nebraska National Guard was put into effect Friday to meet the Army's new demand for streamlined "pentomic" divisions of highly mobile striking power.

Maj. Gen. Guy N. Henninger, state adjutant general, said the program completely changes the designations of many local guard units. Infantry outfits suddenly become artillery batteries, for example, and tank outfits become rifle or combat arms outfits.

In short, the whole state guard of 3,500 officers and enlisted men has been reorganized and converted into two infantry battle groups, two artillery battalions, an adjutant general's replacement battalion, plus the same engineering battalion as before, Gen. Henninger said.

Formerly the state had one infantry regiment, a tank battalion, an ordnance battalion, and an artillery battalion.

New in the reorgnization is a combat communications company, based at Lincoln, and part of an aviation company to be based at the new field at Camp Ashland, between Omaha and Lincoln.

The Nebraska Guard is part of a "pentomic" division, the other parts being formed Friday in Iowa under a similar reorganizational and conversion order.

In the new division of five battle groups, Nebraska has two and Iowa three.

Gen. Henninger said there was no resistance to the change by local governmental units.

Husker Coed Hurt During Car-Jamming

A University of Nebraska girl was injured Friday when she was struck by a car during a Spring Day "car-jamming" contest.

Jo Ann Jasperson, home economics junior from Oakland, suffered bruises to her left side. She had jumped from one of the crowded cars and darted across the street, police said.

The 21-year-old girl was injured when she collided with a car driven by Charles H. Hikes, 24, of 1111 Belmont. She was reported in satisfactory condition at a local hospital.

Contact Lens Fluid Found Dangerous

The State Health Department issued an urgent warning Friday for wearers of contact lenses to be on the lookout for a certain commercial cleanser which might cause blindness if used.

The cleanser was examined by the Federal Food and Drug Administration and a certain lot was found to contain a bacterium which, if used in eyes already injured or infected, could cause blindness.

The name of the cleanser is Barnes-Hind Wetting Solution, and the defective lot bears the code number 010159 on the retail package, the Food and Drug Administration said.

The cleanser is put up in two-ounce dropper bottles by Barnes - Hind Ophthalmic Products, Inc., of Sunnyvale, Calif., and is distributed all over the nation.

Mrs. Luce Resigns; Parting Shot At Morse

SENATOR IS FINAL VICTOR

Washington (AP) — Clare Boothe Luce gave up her ambassadorship to Brazil Friday with a parting shot at Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) for what she termed "extraordinarily ugly charges against my person."

Sen. Homer Capehart (R-Ind) raised the possibility he may seek to have the Senate censure Morse, who had waged an unsuccessful battle against Mrs. Luce's confirmation.

Capehart told reporters he thinks Morse acted with "the height of irresponsibility" in asking Mrs. Luce's doctor if she ever had been under psychiatric treatment.

Mrs. Luce Sen. Morse

Morse had contended that Mrs. Luce was unstable and unfit for the diplomatic post and that she slandered Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1944.

Sen. Church Laughs

Sen. Frank Church of Idaho, the acting Democratic leader, only laughed when informed of Capehart's censure proposal. He declined specific comment. There was no comment from Morse.

Capehart said he was acting only for himself and had not talked with other senators about his proposal. He said he plans to confer with the Senate parliamentarian on Monday and then: "I may introduce the (censure) resolution myself."

If Capehart should push such a move, the political division in the Senate would be against him. Democrats outnumber Republicans 64-34.

Morse issued a restrained victory statement. He commended Mrs. Luce for resigning and President Eisenhower for agreeing to it, and added:

"My Duty"

"As chairman of the Latin American subcommittee of the Foreign Relations Committee, I considered it my duty to oppose this nomination.

"It is never pleasant to get involved in a controversy such as this, but when I consider it my duty to do so, I shall never flinch."

Morse had lost overwhelmingly on Tuesday when he tried to keep the Senate from confirming Mrs. Luce.

The sharp-tongued playwright - politician - diplomat didn't let well enough alone then, however. She annoyed or enraged a number of senators by saying her troubles with Morse began when he was kicked in the head by a horse. Eisenhower called the remark human, if illadvised.

Several senators said Friday they thought it was well she had quit. Others regretted her decision.

Mrs. Luce handed the President a letter resigning the post because "it is no longer possible for me to accomplish the mission which you have entrusted to me."

Rosenblatt Asks Race Tax Share

Omaha (UPI)—Mayor John Rosenblatt proposed Friday that Omaha and "other financially-pressed cities" should get part of the revenue from any tax on pari-mutuel betting.

A bill to place a tax on bets on horse races is pending before the Legislature and is scheduled for debate next Wednesday.

Rosenblatt said it may be possible to distribute half of such a racing tax to municipalities in counties where the tracks are operated and give the other half to the state.

Lot Of Service

He said cities near race-tracks render a lot of service to the tracks, specifically in traffic control, sewer facilities and fire protection, and deserve at least a part of the money.

The mayor said he feels the Omaha property tax levy is already too high but demands for spending continue to mount and such a tax would come in handy.

It was estimated that Omaha would get up to $150,000 if half of the revenue from Ak-Sar-Ben betting taxes were distributed to communities on a per capita basis.

The computations are based on a 2% tax on gross betting over $1 million.

Proposed amendments to the bill call for a 2% tax on gross wagers over the first $1 million bet at each track. The Revenue Committee also has amended the original bill to provide that all revenue would go into the state's general fund.

Ak-Sar-Ben is currently outside the Omaha city limits but there is some pressure on the City Council to annex it.

Distorted Newscasts Criticized

. . . By TV Directors

Chicago (AP)—A sharp condemnation of broadcasting practices which tend to distort news and decieve audiences was made public Friday by the Radio-Television News Directors Assn.

"News is not vaudeville," the association declared.

The attack on gimmickery and deception in news presentation was made in a resolution adopted by the RTNDA directors April 25 in New Orleans.

Text of the resolution was released by Ralph Renick of station WTVJ, Miami, who said it will be submitted to the association's convention in New Orleans Oct. 14-17.

Not Aimed at Spoofing

The blast, said William G. Barry of WBBM-TV, Chicago, was not directed at such obvious spoofing as burlesqued man-on-the-street reports as are aired on the Steve Allen show.

But, he said, some announces have tailored news copy supplied to them by national wire services in a manner to convey the impression that well-known news service reporters were exclusively on the payroll of the broadcasting station.

In other instances, he said, an announcer, after giving the gist of a colorful news story, cut a second announcer in the studio into the broadcast — the second broadcaster, speaking over a microphone doctored to deaden its quality, pretended that he was phoning an eyewitness description of actual news from a remote scene.
